Golf Courses Build off Big Season in Poconos

Popularity continues to drive golfers to region courses this year

April 2, 2025 – Building off a recent surge of successful seasons, golf courses throughout the Pocono Mountains are ready to welcome players to tee off at historic, challenging and dynamic courses throughout the four counties of the Poconos. Spring weather has allowed crews to get courses into shape for the 2025 season across the Pocono Mountains.

Each golf course in the Poconos offers stunning scenery, challenging play for seasoned golfers, and an enjoyable experience for beginners. Some were crafted by legendary designers like Donald Ross and renowned champions such as Art Wall, Jr., the 1959 Masters winner and Honesdale native. To help golfers explore the region's finest courses, the Pocono Mountains Visitors Bureau offers a comprehensive Guide to the Best Golf Courses in the Poconos.

In addition to the outdoor traditional courses, The Wake Zone Indoor Golf + Taproom at Lake Wallenpaupack provides six aboutGolf simulators for indoor golf on 75 of the best courses around the world when the weather forces golfers inside this season. Woodloch Springs also has an indoor golf simulator available.

Also back this year, Golf'nGamble is at your service with a specially prepared quote for groups looking for Stay & Play packages, Bachelor Parties and Group Day and Overnight Bus Trips.
