Pike County Government Facilities Will Limit Public Access Essential Business Only Under Restricted On-Site Hours

PIKE COUNTY, PA — To protect the public and county employees during the current spike in COVID-19 cases, effective Monday, December 14, Pike County government facilities will limit public access to on-site hours of 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, by appointment only, for essential business. This schedule includes the:

- Administration Building, 506 Broad Street, Milford;
- Area Agency on Aging, 150 Pike County Boulevard, Hawley;
- Conservation District, 556 Route 402, Blooming Grove;
- Community Planning and Workforce Development Offices, 837 Route 6, Shohola;
- Public Defender's Office, 102 East John Street, Milford; and
- Training Center, 135 Pike County Boulevard, Lords Valley, PA

County staff and the public must wear masks, to cover their mouths and noses, at all times while transacting essential business within county facilities.

The Pike County Commissioners will continue to monitor local COVID-19 statistics and impacts, and will review and update services and on-site hours as necessary.

Non-Essential Business

The public should conduct non-essential county business online, by telephone, or by email. Visit www.pikepa.org/Online for a list of county business that can be conducted online or by phone.

Otherwise, please call the specific department or office in advance of visiting any of these facilities during on-site hours.
