FLORIDA'S WARMEST WELCOME

Experience Florida's Warmest Welcome in Pompano Beach, a beautiful coastal community on Florida's southeast shore. Located between Fort Lauderdale and Boca Raton, it boasts 3 miles of golden sand beaches and clear warm, water. Pompano Beach offers the perfect blend of relaxation and excitement. Soak up the sun on the beach, explore Shipwreck Park, fish or stroll along the iconic Fisher Family Pier, indulge in fresh seafood and live music, or even catch a concert. Come experience the laid-back charm and natural beauty of Pompano Beach.

DID YOU KNOW?

Pompano Beach is named after the Florida pompano, a popular game fish found off the City's coast. The pompano is known for its delicious taste and is prized by fishermen and seafood lovers alike. The end of the Fisher Family Pier was designed to resemble the head of a pompano. Throughout Pompano Beach you'll also notice 5' tall painted pompano statues from the City's first large public art installation.

EXPLORE THE BEACH

Pompano Beach is more beautiful, exciting and welcoming than ever. Embrace the sunshine on the 3 miles of wide sandy shoreline. Enjoy the tree-shaded promenade where you may come across a concert on the great lawn or see children playing in the interactive splash pad. Have some fitness fun using the outdoor gym equipment. Bring a picnic lunch to enjoy under one of the gazebos, or grab refreshments from one of the many nearby eateries.

Walk a few beach blocks along the promenade and you'll find the nearly 900', iconic Fisher Family Pier perfect for people watching, strolling, fishing or visiting some friendly pelicans. Fishing rods and bait are available at the Bait Shack located at the entrance of the pier.

The Pier anchors the Pompano Beach Fishing Village where you'll find street and garage parking, both casual and upscale dining, a tiki bar, a fabulous coffee hub and other shops. Stop by the Visitor Center, at the southwest corner of the Beach Garage for recommendations, information and discount coupons.

DIVING

The warm waters of the Gulf Stream help maintain comfortable water temperatures year-round, making it a perfect place for snorkelers and divers. Explore the natural reefs and colorful marine life they support. Visit any of the 18 shipwrecks of Shipwreck Park that lie beneath the waves. Dive sites are easily accessible, with many located just a short boat ride from the shore.

FISHING

You might expect that a city named after a fish enjoys the salt life. You would be correct. In fact, Pompano Beach has some of the world's best sport fishing. The topography and the temperature of the Atlantic Ocean are the perfect habitat for sport fish like mahi-mahi, wahoo, tuna and many others. Daily fishing charters offer reef fishing and deep-sea fishing that can accommodate all levels of experience.

WATER ADVENTURES

The inviting clear waters of Pompano Beach provide ideal conditions for enjoying your favorite watersport, be it in the ocean or the intracoastal waterways. Local vendors can equip you for your next adventure whether for kayaking, stand-up-paddle boarding, jet skiing, sailing, or kiteboarding.

GOLF

Pompano Beach is home to five 18-hole golf courses. The Pompano Beach Golf Course has two courses, including The Pines Course, designed by World Golf Hall-of-Famer Greg Norman. Palm-Aire Country Club holds three 18-hole courses. All courses are open to the public.

PARKS & RECREATION

In addition to golf, Pompano Beach has 50 parks with 700 acres of green space. Pompano Beach Community Park is just a short drive from the main beach and is home to the Pompano Beach Amphitheatre, ball fields, an aquatic center, fitness trails, a playground as well as tennis and pickleball courts. Sgt. Kip Jacoby Park provides an all-accessible playground allowing children of all abilities to play with their peers.

ENTERTAINMENT

There's no shortage of entertainment in Pompano Beach, with an ongoing diverse lineup of shows and concerts at any of the City's five cultural arts venues, including a 3,000-seat covered amphitheater. Restaurants, bars and hotels host live, local bands and entertainers, featuring an assortment of musical styles.

GAMING

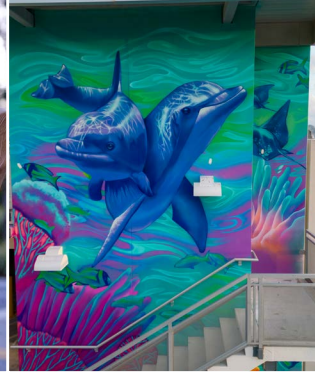

Harrah's Pompano Beach is home to over 1,200 slots machines and electronic table games, a WSOP Poker Room with 40+ live action poker tables, a high-tech sports bar and wagering/simulcast area, and an open-air gaming terrace, along with a 14-seat video poker bar and more than 30 televisions broadcasting news, sports and racing. The casino houses two restaurants; a casual eatery featuring NY-style deli favorites and the other a classic American steakhouse.

FESTIVALS

Experience world-class jazz, delicious seafood and nautical markets that herald Pompano Beach's water-loving lifestyle. Vibrant celebrations of cultures from the Caribbean islands to far-flung India. Plan your vacation around these family-friendly Pompano Beach events and festivals.

CULTURAL ARTS

Pompano Beach is a dynamic cultural hub. Our city offers a rich tapestry of artistic experiences, including world-class venues, galleries, live music, and public art, for art lovers of all kinds. The Pompano Beach Cultural Center includes a 300-seat theatre which can convert to a cabaret style venue with table tops and chairs. The gallery at the Center has achieved acclaim for its curatorial showcasing of regional, national and international artists.

The Pompano Beach Amphitheatre (Amp) is a 3,000-seat outdoor venue that offers an amazing concert experience with one epic act after another. The "Amp" is known for hosting a wide variety of concerts ranging from hard rock, country, soul, rap and everything in between.

Ali Cultural Arts Center is a unique venue offering public visual art exhibits, musical and dance performances, providing a glimpse into the heritage of the Pompano Beach African-American community, and has become a center for the arts and history of Pompano Beach.

Bailey Contemporary Arts Center (BaCA) is a beautiful contemporary art gallery. On the second floor there are working studio spaces for BaCA's resident artists, who range from collagists to potters, painters to sculptors. Patrons can venture upstairs to watch them create. The center area provides lounge places for brainstorming or small meetings. It is the second oldest historical building in Pompano Beach.

PLACES TO STAY

Pompano Beach offers a variety of lodging options to suit your preference and budget. Whether you prefer a charming boutique property, a lavish 4-star beachside resort, limited-service hotel, extended-stay accommodations, or vacation rental, you will find what you are looking for in Pompano Beach.

Hotels often have special hotel packages that coincide with special events, festivals and performances.

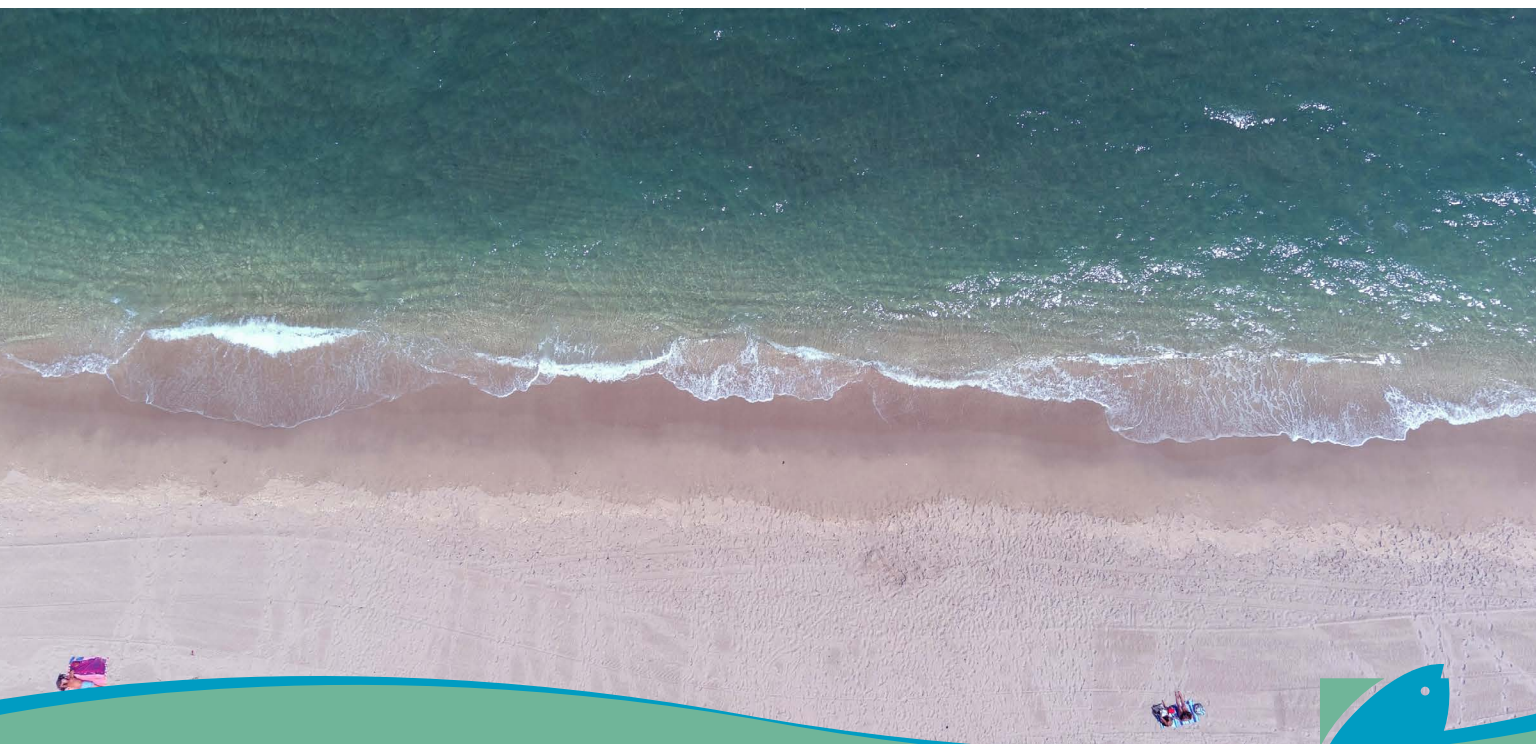

FOOD & DRINK

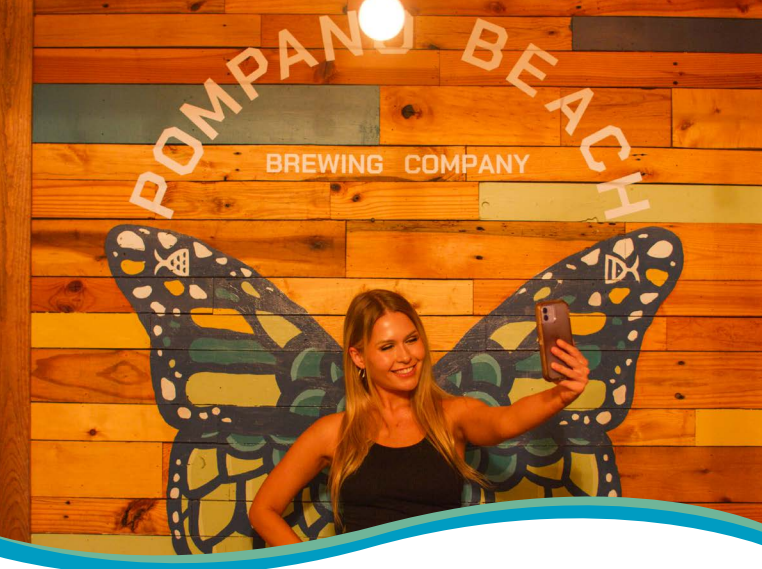

Pompano Beach is a dining destination that offers options for every taste. Take your pick from restaurants serving freshly caught seafood, prime steaks, and international cuisine.

Whether its tropical drinks with your toes in the sand, fine dining at beachfront restaurants, or brunch with friends and family. No matter the experience, our food and drink scene extends a warm welcome to all.

Go on a bucket-list worthy bar crawl through Pompano Beach's bars and breweries.

Beer aficionados will appreciate Pompano Beach's five local breweries. And, while some are off the beaten path, they're definitely worth going the extra distance. Each has its own distinct vibe and style of craft beers.
