BIKES ON TRAINS

Bicycling enthusiasts can take their bikes on labeled bike-friendly South Shore Line trains to better access all the recreation, entertainment and culture of Chicago. From Millennium Station, there are nearby trails and routes to get to Navy Pier, Millennium Park, Lincoln Park Zoo and many other area attractions.

WHEN TO RIDE

Bike-friendly labeled cars will be available on select days from April through October. For bike-friendly trains and times, visit mysouthshoreline.com/bikes

HOW TO RIDE

1 LOOK FOR LABELED TRAIN CAR
Bike-friendly train cars with bike racks are identified with the bike symbol prominently located on the windows of the train car.

2 LOAD YOUR BIKE
Enter and exit the bike-friendly cars through the center doors, and insert your bike into one of the self-locking bike racks. Bike racks are provided free of charge on a first-come, first-served basis.

RULES OF THE TRAIN

PERMITTED BIKES
Racks fit standard two-wheel bikes with a maximum front tire width of 2.5" and maximum distance from front axle to rear axle of 46" (wheel base). Permitted bikes DO NOT include recumbent, tricycle, tandem, kiddie/cargo trailer or fat tires.

EXERCISE CAUTION
No riding on station platforms. Once on the train, the train will depart the station after passengers have boarded. Please exercise caution as the train may move before your bike is inserted in the rack. Push up on the self-locking mechanism to release your bike.

TRAIN CREWS HAVE FINAL SAY
Train crews have the final authority on accommodating bikes. Crews may prohibit a cyclist from boarding due to overcrowding.

FIRST-COME, FIRST-SERVED
Bikes will be handled on a first-come, first-served basis. Space is not guaranteed on an initial or return trip (including late-night trains). Each car can accommodate up to 14 bikes.
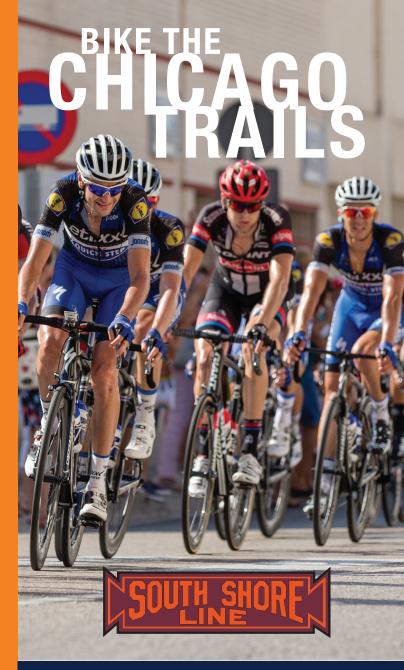

ONLY ALLOWED ON LABELED CARS
Bikes are ONLY permitted on select labeled bike-friendly trains. Bikes may not be permitted during special event weekends such as Lollapalooza and the Air & Water Show.

BE COURTEOUS
Bikes may not block aisles or impede passenger movement, and cyclists must accompany their bikes at all times. Be considerate of your fellow riders by first allowing passengers using mobility devices to board and disembark trains.

CLEAN BIKES WELCOME
Bikes should be free of dirt and grease prior to boarding.
