

Portsmouth's Literary Greats

Half Day Tour

Charles Dickens' Birthplace Museum ⌚ 60 mins

Visit the Georgian home where the esteemed author Charles Dickens was born on 7 February 1812.

Discover what life would have been like for this literary great. The rooms of Charles Dickens' Birthplace take you on a journey not just into the life of the great author, but through lifestyles and preferences of people at the time.

The furniture, ceramics, glass, household objects and decorations faithfully recreate the Regency style.

View furnished rooms plus a small collection of memorabilia: the coach upon which he died at his house in Kent, together with his inkwell, snuff box and paper knife, poignant reminders of an author celebrated for his prodigious talents and creative output.

www.charlesdickensbirthplace.co.uk

Dickens' guided tour ⌚ 90 mins

Tour other sites in the city with Dickensian connections and find out more about the author and his family's time in Portsmouth.

www.visitportsmouth.co.uk

More things to do

The D-Day Story

Discover the story of D-Day through personal accounts, authentic objects and immersive audio-visuals. Visits start on board the massive landing craft LCT 7074 and The Overlord Embroidery provides an epic finale.

www.theddaystory.com

Mary Rose

See stunning panoramic views of Henry VIII's favourite warship, raised from the sea bed in 1982. Take an unrivalled look into Tudor life as the personal stories of the crew are told through thousands of artefacts.

www.maryrose.org

HMS Victory

Walk the decks and see where Vice-Admiral Lord Nelson fell during the Battle of Trafalgar. Discover where sailors and officers ate and slept and feel the drama and impact of the day HMS Victory went into battle.

www.historicdockyard.co.uk

Portsmouth Cathedral

The 'Cathedral of the Sea', dates back to 1185 and has close connections with the seafaring community. It includes the grave of a member of the Mary Rose crew and the famed D-Day stained glass window.

www.portsmouthcathedral.org.uk

Great food and drink to suit all tastes

Gunwharf Quays

Over 30 restaurants, bars and coffee shops offering a range of menu options, many with waterside views.

Southsea

Great range of independent restaurants and bars offering food from across the globe – including seafront eateries and fish and chip restaurants.

Old Portsmouth

Traditional English pubs, restaurants and tea rooms in the historic cobbled streets of Old Portsmouth.

Destination Information

The Visitor Information Service is on hand to answer any enquiries you may have about your visit including details of coach and taxi hire.

Full information about Portsmouth is available at visitportsmouth.co.uk

Contact the team:
vis@portsmouthcc.gov.uk