PRESCOTT ARIZONA

was first settled with the discovery of gold in Granite Creek. The City was founded in 1864. President Abraham Lincoln named Prescott the first Territorial Capital of Arizona, a distinction the City held from 1864-67 and again from 1877-1889. In 1891, Prescott became the Yavapai County Seat, and it remains so to this day. In 1888 Prescott held its first rodeo. To this day, it is known as the World's Oldest Rodeo. In 1901, a fire leveled the infamous Whiskey Row bars, and the county courthouse.

Notable figures from Prescott's past include Doc Holiday and his mistress, Big Nose Kate, who frequented the Palace and other Whiskey Row establishments. Senator Barry Goldwater hailed from Prescott. His family owned a general merchandise store on Cortez Street in the downtown, and their name is still on the building.

Western history is not all Prescott has to offer. Prescott is nestled in the central highlands of Arizona, at a mile-high elevation. The city is surrounded by the 1.25 million acre Prescott National Forest, and boasts five lakes, and over 450 miles of trails.

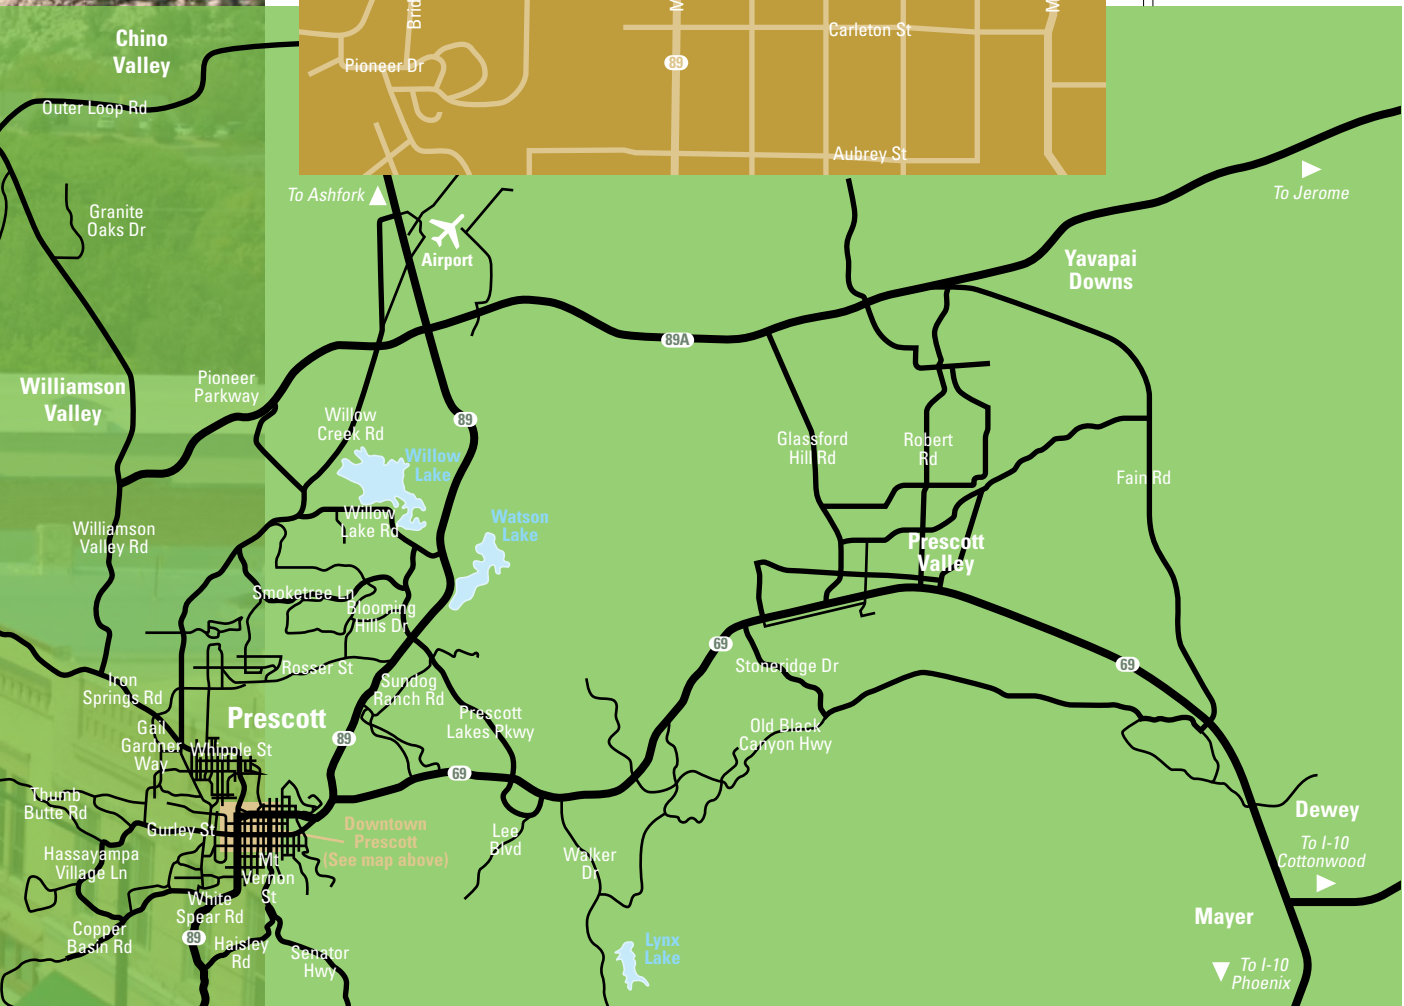

Most of all, you will enjoy genuine Western hospitality, heritage, tradition and an outdoor lifestyle that makes Prescott the "Best Destination in Arizona for Nature Lovers," according to Expedia Viewfinder (August, 2017).

YOU'LL LEARN PLENTY

as a knowledgeable local guide describes historic and current local characters, events and locations. An easy walk of slightly less than a mile will give you a chance to learn the tales and traditions that have defined the city. Visit www.prescott.org for a complete schedule or call the Prescott Chamber of Commerce at 928-445-2000 for details.

Explore Historic Whiskey Row

You'll find most anything you want on historic Whiskey Row. Saunter through the same saloon doors where Wyatt Earp, Doc Holliday, Big Nose Kate and other legendary heroes—and scoundrels—would belly up to the bar.

However, you'll find more than watering holes and live music. Explore locally owned authentic shops, galleries and boutiques.

any of the more than 800 buildings on the National Register of Historic Places cited on the National Historic Register, you'll be tempted to step in for a fast meal—or a fine dining experience. You'll probably be pleased that of the more than 200 places to eat in the city, a majority are "hometown" owned and managed. They range from "Mom n' Pop" eateries to sophisticated dining in elegant surroundings. You'll be surprised at the ethnic variety available, too.

Of course, you can sample locally brewed award-winning beverages at micro breweries or wine-tasting shops. You may want to try one of the newest. It is a recently opened meadery, just up Gurley Street on the way to Sharlot Hall Museum. If you're of such a mind, visits some local pubs and try some of the wines which come from Arizona wineries and vineyards.

WESTERN CULTURE AND HOSPITALITY

There's a warm, welcoming feeling wherever you roam the historic downtown area. Locals will greet you with genuine smile and "Nice to see you." In the center of town, looming large over a plaza ringed by century-old trees is the much photographed granite Courthouse. It's the focal point for many festivals and events from late April through October.

A Special Place

DESIGNATED AS ARIZONA'S CHRISTMAS CITY, during winter months, the area around the Courthouse is home for unequalled holiday festivities. You won't want to miss any of them. Festivities begin in late November. The first is the colorful Holiday Light Parade, where elaborate decorated floats and holiday music will have you smiling. Ultimately, you may wind up at the community bonfire, just up the street at Mile High Middle School.

Then the first week of December features the colorful daytime Christmas Parade, with more than 75 entries. It involves almost everyone in town.

If you're lucky enough to be here in early December, you'll beam when the Yavapai County Courthouse Plaza lights turn the dark into a kaleidoscope of holiday colors. This year will be the 64th annual lighting. You'll join local students, townspeople and visitors in singing traditional Christmas carols. Just up the street two blocks, you'll enjoy a Frontier Christmas staged by the Sharlot Hall Museum. You'll be transported back to how pioneers celebrated Christmas.

100 local musicians – students, local musicians, churches, the community and visitors- during the melodious Acker Musical Showcase the second week of December. Businesses downtown open doors to performers, who sing, play instruments and entertain – and invite you to join in. Don't miss these other Christmas Events – Wild Lights & Animal Sights at Heritagae Park Zoo, Enchanted Christmas at Prescott Gateway Mall and Storytellers at Smoki Museum.

Boot Drop the Way to Begin the Year

It's better than New York and Times Square when the 6-foot illuminated custom-made cowboy boot "drops" at 10 p.m. and again at midnight, December 31, across the street from Yavapai County Courthouse Plaza.

You'll cheer with the rest with live music, vendors and other festive activities to welcome the New Year. Where else but Prescott—the Boot Drop.

SCARCELY A WEEK GOES

BY from spring through fall when the popular Yavapai County Courthouse Plaza and the surrounding area serve as venues for festivals or events of some sort. During the season you'll enjoy concerts and other musical performances, square dances, arts and crafts shows, car shows, western reenactments, marathons and the annual Whiskey Off Road, a mountain biking event. The Prescott Downtown Partnership and the Chamber of Commerce work with the City to support many of these activities, providing you and other visitors a glimpse of why Prescott is such a special place.

PRESCOTT VALLEY

A great place to...

A progressive community of approximately 45,000 people, Prescott Valley is the largest, fastest growing and youngest community in Yavapai County.

Located about 85 miles north of Phoenix, in the high-desert of Central Arizona, Prescott Valley residents and visitors enjoy the beautiful climate and mild four seasons.

The Prescott Valley Event Center, a premiere entertainment facility, is home to the Northern Arizona Suns, the development team for the Phoenix Suns, and the PRCA Turquoise Circuit Rodeo Finals.

The community boasts 27 parks, which offer a myriad of recreation opportunities, including swimming, hiking, biking, and youth sports.

Prescott Valley enjoys a diverse business community with manufacturing, health care, education, hotels, restaurants, retail and locally-owned companies.

With its growing population, Prescott Valley offers a growing variety of single and multi-family housing opportunities.

OUTDOOR LOVERS PARADISE

You'll have to be in good shape to conquer the hundreds of miles of designated trails in the immediate Prescott area. As of last count, more than 15 distinctive named hiking, biking (and sometimes horse) trails wiggle through the natural scenic beauty of the community and the Prescott National Forest. Difficulty? From "Novice to "Expert."

The 54-mile Prescott Circle Trail will challenge you. A complete list of the Mile High Trail System –70 plus miles of it– is available at the at the Chamber of Commerce Visitor Center on Goodwin Street south of Courthouse Plaza. www.prescott-az.gov.

Don't miss the Granite Dells, where unique rock formations thrust out of the ground and tempt hikers and rock-climbers.

If you're into birding, Prescott's the place. More than 360 species of birds inhabit the area. The Prescott Audubon Society www.prescottaudubon.org can provide full details about where to go and when.

Prescott has Water & Parks

If you want water activities, you'll enjoy the three local lakes—Willow and Watson, both on the northwest edge of the City. The third is Goldwater. Maintained by the City of Prescott, the 15-acre lake is located in lush pine forests surrounded by rugged mountain areas. The City of Prescott has boat and bicycle rentals available www.prescottoutdoors.com, 928-925-1410

Two others—Lynx Lake and Granite Basin Lake—are just outside the City limits. If you like kayaking and canoeing—and fishing—you can visit any of these lakes. Of course, all have picnicking and camping sites.

Want to spend time in a park? The City boasts 16 of them, all with amenities that guarantee memorable times. Some are purely recreational—walking and exercising and picnicking. Others are specialized. Some are athletic parks—softball, baseball, soccer, tennis, basketball, skateboards, rink skating and the like. One in particular—McCasland Willow Creek Park features one of only four in the U.S. custom-created Dog Parks. Canines are the most welcome visitors.

A complete list with locations is available on the City website www.prescott-az.gov/services/parks

THE MILE-HIGH TRAIL SYSTEM

contains approximately 70+ miles of trails including Rails-to-Trails projects along the former Santa Fe Railroad, the Prescott Circle Trail System, and the Greenways Trails System. The Prescott Circle Trail is a 54 mile network of trails that encircles all of Prescott with varied elevation from 5,140' to 6,690'. The Greenways Trails are urban trails along Granite and Miller Creeks that run through downtown Prescott. www.prescott-az.gov/services/parks/trails/

YEAR-ROUND RECREATIONAL ACTIVITY

You may have heard that golf balls fly farther at the mile-high altitude. Test that theory at one of the local golf courses.

Antelope Hills Golf Courses—Two full public 18-hole courses, each challenging but not intimidating, will let you walk or ride on lush green turf. Finish the round with a beverage or a meal at the recently remodeled Manzanita Grill. Just north of town at 1 Perkins Drive, it is owned by the City of Prescott and operated by Billy Casper Golf.

FORT WHIPPLE MUSEUM two miles from downtown on the VA Medical Center grounds, The Fort includes the history of the Territorial Indian wars, artifacts of Army weaponry, maps, photos and memoirs written by those stationed there; housed in one of the military officer's quarters (building 11) off Hwy. 89 near Hwy. 69. Open Thursday-Sunday.

GUINNESS WORLD RECORD MODEL AIRPLANE COLLECTION This one-of-a-kind display of hand-carved model aircraft—some 5,829 of them—is located in the Udvar-Hazy Library and Learning Center at Embry Riddle Aeronautical University on Willow Creek Road.

HERITAGE PARK ZOOLOGICAL SANCTUARY children and adults alike will enjoy the large naturally landscaped enclosures where they can see up-close native and exotic animals. They'll also enjoy the covered picnic pavilion, the children's playground and the many educational exhibits. It is on the northeast edge of Prescott at 1403 Heritage Park Road.

The history and heritage of central Arizona come alive for you at local museums and centers.

HIGHLANDS CENTER FOR NATURAL HISTORY this non-profit science and ecological education center focuses upon helping children and adults discover the wonders of nature through workshops, lectures, day camps, school programs and other activities. The modern facility is at 1375 S. Walker Road on the way to Lynx Lake and the Prescott National Forest.

PHIPPEN MUSEUM just a few miles north of downtown Prescott on Hwy 89, the museum presents unique Western art exhibitions, and educational programming. It has permanent and rotating arts exhibits throughout the year.

SHARLOT HALL MUSEUM only a short stroll west from the Courthouse Square, the four-acre museum and research center highlight the culture and history of the Arizona Central Highlands, the Territorial frontier and both early settlers and Native American peoples spanning 14,000 years to the present. Open daily.

SMOKI MUSEUM located on East Gurley Street just adjacent to Ken Lindley Field and Park, the museum is home for irreplaceable prehistoric and contemporary artifacts identified with Southwestern Native American history and culture.

Experience Day Trips

Prescott's the perfect place from which to launch memorable day trips, especially to the nearby Verde Valley and adjacent Red Rock Country. It's only an hour away. Among the favorites are the following:

Cottonwood, The Heart of Arizona Wine Country

Located in the Verde Valley, Cottonwood is ideally situated between the heat of the desert and the cooler temperatures of Arizona's high country. Old Town retains the charm of those early beginnings, and the Verde Valley Wine Trail is not to be missed!

Verde Canyon Railroad

Postcard-perfect scenery, wildlife viewing and first-class service during a leisurely four-hour train ride through the red rock Canyon area. First-class cars boast comfortable seating, complimentary appetizers and a full-service bar. Everyone has access to open-air viewing cars where photographic opportunities abound.

The Blazin' M Ranch Western Dinner Theatre

Tucked along the banks of the scenic Verde River, this popular family destination is a great activity. It is timed perfectly after you finish your ride on the Verde Canyon Railroad. The ranch activities include a shooting gallery, roping lessons, Old-Time photos, a saloon, museum and unique gift shops. Top it off with a chuckwagon-style meal, followed by a live Western stage production with cowboy comedy, storytelling and award-winning musicians!

Town of Jerome

Stroll the winding switchback streets of what was once known as the "wickedest town in the West." At one time the fourth largest town in Arizona, Jerome was a mining community founded a few years after the Civil War on the side of 5,200 foot high Cleopatra Hill. The mines are now abandoned, but Jerome thrives as a popular tourist community with dozens of unusual shops, boutiques, exhibits, museums and restaurants.

Arizona Offroad Tours

Northern Arizona's premiere ATV tours will guide you through the unique backdrop of Arizona's high desert country. Our Sedona trails explore vast plateaus and the backdrop of blue sky and red rocks popping against the green of the desert vegetation. Our Verde Valley trails are breathtakingly beautiful. Phoenix magazine described them as "nature's rollercoaster." We will keep your camera busy and your heart content. Our trails and rides are all about enjoying nature and having great fun. Come see why our guests have rated us #1 on TripAdvisor.

THE VERDE VALLEY WINE TRAIL

is located in beautiful Northern Arizona, the Verde Valley Wine Trail invites wine enthusiasts to experience a destination rich in history, beauty, and the production of exquisite Arizona wines. There are six Arizona wineries and ten tasting rooms on the Verde Valley Wine Trail that offer a variety of skillfully crafted wines to satisfy any wine taster's palate. Every winery has its own unique personality and distinct wines for visitors to discover at each stop along the Wine Trail. Visit the great wineries and tasting rooms nestled in the red rock countryside and lush canyons surrounding Cottonwood, Jerome, Sedona, Clarkdale, Cornville, and Camp Verde.
