

Visit PRINCE WILLIAM VIRGINIA

Brothers and Sisters in Arms – A Military Tour of Northern Virginia

Your group will experience the immense pride Northern Virginia has in the United States armed forces. Home to Marine Corps Base Quantico and Fort Belvoir, your group will be immersed in the history of the Marine Corps and Army at their respective museums, as well as hear the incredible stories of other service members. Your group will return home with a greater sense of patriotism after their moving experience here in Northern Virginia.

Day 1

Start your tour by paying your respects at Quantico National Cemetery with a private flag placing experience at the graves of veterans whose remains were previously forgotten. Hosted by the Missing in America Project, their mission is to find, identify and provide full military burial for these now remembered heroes.

Quantico National Cemetery

National Museum of the Marine Corps

Your next stop is an experience at the National Museum of the Marine Corps. Uncover the history of the Corps, test your skills as a Marine, and get insight into the lives of those who fight for our freedom. During your visit, see the incredible Gene Hackman-narrated film “We, The Marines” to get an unparalleled view into the experiences of Marines from boot camp through modern warfare training. Enjoy lunch at Devil Dog Diner, a cafeteria-style eatery, or Tun Tavern, a replica of the Philadelphia tavern where the Marine Corps was established.

The day will continue with dinner at The Harbour Grille. While enjoying the view of the marina, sample from menu items such as lump crab cakes with sweet potato fries, grilled salmon with crispy parmesan polenta, or a certified Angus ribeye. There is nothing like enjoying surf and turf along the water!

Harbour Grille

After dinner, check in to one of the many group-friendly hotels in Prince William, VA.

Day 2

Begin your day with a presentation at your hotel. The "History of Marine Corps Base Quantico" program gives an overview of the history of the base located 35 miles south of Washington DC; the presentation includes the creation of the base during World War I, its expansion during World War II, historical information on activities on base, including information on some of the historical buildings and the Town of Quantico.

Rippon Lodge

Next, you will travel to Rippon Lodge to learn about the former home of Admiral Richard Blackburn Black and his family's history. Built in 1747, Rippon Lodge is the oldest known home in Prince William County. The Blackburn's have a unique story to tell as it relates to our nation's independence, which you will learn about during your visit.

The National Museum of the United States Army shines a unique light on the symbiotic relationship between Army and society, highlighting the Army's direct influence on our nation socially, technologically, scientifically, financially, and culturally. The Museum immerses visitors in 245 years of American Soldiers' experiences. With its various galleries, 300+ degree multi-sensory theater, fully interactive Experiential Learning Center, cutting edge simulation and virtual reality experiences, shopping, and gourmet café, this incredible destination is exciting for guests of all interests and ages.
