PRINCE WILLIAM
—Parks, Recreation & Tourism

Prince William County Department of Parks, Recreation and Tourism (DPRT) is home to over 50 parks and community spaces that are available for public use and enjoyment year-round. Many of these parks range from small playgrounds to large green areas and contain several uncovered picnic tables that can be used for free and without a reservation.

For more details and prices visit Park Pavilion Rentals or call \(703\) 792-7060

Reservations are highly recommended and available at our waterparks and parks for the below pavilions and picnic shelters.

- It is recommended that you visit the location to make sure the pavilion you are interested in and the surrounding amenities will meet your needs.
- Please read the policies listed under each facility as they differ from location to location regarding but not limited to reservation dates, grills, music, and alcohol.
- Any requests outside the amenities listed within the facility description may require additional documentation and approval. Contact the site for more information.
