Site inspections

Queenstown Convention Bureau (QCB) give clients two options for site inspections and the decision regarding the format of the site inspection is 100% made by the client.

The first option is that the site inspection is fully hosted by QCB. The Bureau works closely with the client to determine which suppliers they would like to meet with and/or what product they would like to experience. As part of the planning process, the QCB can also introduce the client to other appropriate operators. Visits are tailored to suit the event requirements and maximise time spent in Queenstown.

The second option the client is given is to be hosted on a site inspection by a DMC. This option has been introduced to give those clients who would like to engage a DMC the opportunity to understand more closely the services DMCs provide. If the client has a particular DMC they want to use, the Bureau will connect the client with that DMC. Alternatively the DMC allocated to host can be done by the Bureau on a "next in line" basis. There is absolutely no obligation for the client to retain a DMC for their event – either the DMC that hosted them or any other. If the client does not want to be hosted by a DMC, the Bureau will host the site inspection.

The role of QCB is to connect clients with the suppliers they need to ensure the success of their event. Decisions regarding which suppliers they choose to use is completely up to the client.

Origins of Queenstown

Origins

The pioneering spirit of early settlers has shaped the Southern Lakes region. People have always been drawn here, starting with early Maori who came in search of pounamu (native greenstone) and European settlers who followed with sights set on fertile grazing land. They discovered much more when gold lit up the region's waterways - goldrush fever hit in the 1860s and was the start of an ongoing international fascination with the region.

Today over three million visitors a vear are drawn to the Oueenstown region. The vibrant energy, majestic alpine scenery and huge range of options for activities and adventure, combined with the warm welcome from locals, sets the stage for a world class visitor experience. Queenstown has experienced significant growth over the past decade - more than 25,000 people now live in the wider district. Tourism remains the backbone of the local economy although general business services, wine, education, retail and construction industries also flourish.

Legend

Maori legend tells a beautiful tale of the formation of Queenstown's Lake Whakatipu - formed by Matau, an evil giant who kidnapped the beautiful daughter of a Maori chief named Hā-ki-te-kura.

Hā-ki-te-kura's rescuer Matakauri destroyed Matau by fire, burning him while he lay sleeping. Water from the rivers and melting snow from the mountains filled the giant hole he left in the ground. This formed the shape of Lake Whakatipu as we know it today. Matau's head rested in Glenorchy at the north of the lake, and his feet south in Kingston. Queenstown sits at Matau's knee. Legend has it Matau's heart still beats today, explaining the 'tidal' rise and fall of Lake Whakatipu.

The Maori people first inhabited the area in search of food, including the flightless Moa. They also looked for the coveted pounamu (greenstone), deemed 'toanga' (treasure). In the absence of any local metals, pounamu was used to craft tools, weapons and jewellery.

Corporate Social Responsibility

Destination Queenstown and the Queenstown Convention Bureau are delighted to launch the Queenstown Connection Programme. This programme seeks to create opportunities for our visitors to meaningfully contribute to the Queenstown community while they conference, visit or undertake business here.

As a destination we aim to ensure sustainability within the tourism industry, for the community, the environment and visitor experience. More deeply within this programme we seek to connect our visitors with people and community and offer opportunities to make a difference with genuine community contributions. These connections will provide much needed support for the local community, assist in preservation of the environment and continue to enhance the culture within this small community.

We plan for continued development of corporate and social responsibility programmes within Queenstown and the Whakatipu Basin and thank you for your consideration of how your next group or business trip to Queenstown can make a difference.

Click the below link to be taken to a collection of 16 local not-for-profit organisations and Trusts are already making substantial and long-lasting contributions to the local community in Queenstown.

Surrounding areas - Arrowtown

Only 20 minutes from Queenstown, Arrowtown is central to some of the region's best walking and cycling tracks, golf courses, ski areas, art galleries and wineries.

There's always something to discover, from a stroll along the river to a hike in the hills rich in history. The town also offers vibrant retail stores brimming with unique products and delicious meals crafted from fresh local produce.

Arrowtown's outstanding coffee culture is an attraction in itself with friendly cafés, award-winning restaurants, traditional pubs and boutique bars. Visit the Lakes District Museum for information and maps on Arrowtown's attractions and explore stories and exhibits from the early Maori, through the early pioneering days, to the exciting mining era of the late 1800s. Shopping in the village is a pleasure - galleries feature fine arts and crafts while a boutique cinema specialises in art house, classic movies and new releases. Arrowtown is surrounded by four superb golf courses - Millbrook Resort (Coronet 18 and Remarkables 18), The Hills and the Arrowtown Golf Club. Some of Central Otago's best wineries are minutes away and snow enthusiasts will enjoy Arrowtown's close proximity to four ski areas.

The cry of 'gold' in 1862 enticed miners to the Arrow River, one of the world's richest sources of alluvial gold. During the gold rush the population reached 7,000. These pioneers built small stone and wood cottages, established churches, and planted beautiful trees. Through careful preservation the legacy of the early settlers is retained in a fascinating picturesque town where the past and present seamlessly blend. Arrowtown is ideal for a day visit or to fully enjoy its unique charm stay a while at one of the accommodation options just minutes from the town centre.

Surrounding areas - Gibbston

Gibbston, the Valley of the Vines, is home to some of the region's oldest vineyards nestled between ruggedly beautiful schist mountains.

Located a 30 minute drive from downtown Queenstown you'll find Gibbston, the heart of Central Otago wine country and home to a number of wineries, restaurants, pubs, boutique accommodation, and the historic Kawarau Suspension Bridge. Famous for producing awardwinning pinot noir wines, you'll find a collection of cellar doors lined up along the valley offering tastings of a wide variety of wines from throughout Central Otago's six sub-regions. There's also delicious food to savour at several restaurants and pubs serving up atmospheric, al fresco dining.

Gibbston is known for its array of award-winning wineries, restaurants, and beautiful boutique accommodation, however there are also plenty more adventures and excitement to be had in Gibbston.

Hop on a shuttle, bike around the vines, or go on a guided wine tour – there's all sorts of ways to taste the terroir, and plenty more to eat, see and do along the way.

The wine tour continues in Central Otago, New Zealand's southernmost wine region. Central Otago is known for its vast, rugged landscapes, interesting heritage, expansive cycling trails, and of course incredible food and wine. Tag an afternoon at a few Central Otago wineries onto your Gibbston tour, or stay for a while and explore all that the region has to offer.

Surrounding areas - Glenorchy

Bordered by Mount Aspiring National Park, a New Zealand World Heritage Area, Glenorchy is the gateway to some of New Zealand's best scenery, the Routeburn Track (an award-winning alpine walk with stunning vistas of sweeping valleys and majestic peaks) and the aptly named Paradise.

The 45km drive from Queenstown is one of the most scenic in the world along New Zealand's longest lake, with breath taking views, hanging valleys, glaciers, islands, waterfalls and mountains. The village has great dining and accommodation options, a visitor centre, garage and general stores featuring gifts for those at home and treats for the road trip back to Queenstown.

Glenorchy's surrounding landscape is a prime location for film shoots - you'll recognise scenes from The Hobbit Trilogy, Lord of the Rings Trilogy, The Chronicles of Narnia, Wolverine, The Water Horse, and The Lion, The Witch and The Wardrobe.

This natural wilderness can be explored by foot on a multi-day hike on the Routeburn, Greenstone or Caples tracks, or one of many day or overnight treks exploring Mount Aspiring or Fiordland National Parks. Horseback rides across alluvial river flats into Paradise are popular and so too are jet boat trips into the heart of this remote backcountry. Explore the lake by kayak or charter boat. The lake fishing is fantastic and some of the world's best high country fly fishing rivers are on hand, such as the Greenstone River.

A scenic flight offers the chance to soar over uncharted wilderness, or freefall into paradise with an exhilarating skydive. In winter fly to pristine heli-skiing slopes in the surrounding peaks for an incredible New Zealand snow sports experience.

Surrounding areas - Lake Wānaka

It begins with the landscape, there's an energy, a feeling, that sets Wānaka apart. Located in the stunning Alps of the South Island, just a 60 minute drive from Queenstown International Airport, visitors from around the world are drawn to the Wānaka region by its outstanding beauty.

Unique and captivating at the same time, it inspires you to discover and gives you the freedom to explore.

Wānaka's mountain and lakeside setting and proximity to Mt Aspiring National Park, makes it the ultimate base for outdoor activities

Explore nearby Mt Aspiring National Park - a UNESCO World Heritage Area - and discover pristine rivers, waterfalls, native forests, glaciers and mountains. Guided tours into the National Park are available – choose from jet-boat tours, scenic flights, heli-hiking or a fly-walk-jet combination! Alternatively explore Wānaka at your own pace, with over 750km of tracks and trails that are perfect for walking, hiking and mountain biking.

Surrounding areas - Central Otago

There are few places in the world which will leave you with a lasting sense of difference. Central Otago is undoubtedly one of them from its landscapes, seasons, people, products and experiences.

The Central Otago region is just 60 minutes from Queenstown by road and offers many unique areas to explore. A World of Difference awaits with a rugged sense of individualism instilled as the people here learned to live with nature's extremes.

Understandably this place has shaped who we are and what we do. That same pioneering spirit which braved the elements to break the land is still alive and well. This place genuinely delivers difference in all things - the products and experiences are truly Central Otago. The fine flavours, fine wools, rich history and reputation have spread well beyond our borders. When the world gets busier, Central Otago is a refreshing counterpoint - a rare and precious thing.

In Central Otago, thrill-seeking is more like thrillmeandering. Whether you're wandering, pedaling, paddling or driving, every which way you look makes the heart beat faster. From rugged, rocky outcrops, to the vast, open plains, iconic flat top mountains, and bigger-than-big sky, and at the end of it all, a world class glass of wine.

Surrounding areas - Fiordland

Extraordinary scenic beauty has earned this region a reputation as a significant sightseeing and walking destination, and a "must see" for anyone travelling to New Zealand.

Fiordland has achieved World Heritage status and of the fourteen fiords in the Fiordland National Park, Milford Sound is the most famous and accessible. The Te Anau to Milford highway is a spectacular alpine journey and is one of the world's most scenic drives. A spectacular 2.5 hour journey from Te Anau to this majestic destination, there are many photographic stops and short walks along the way to Milford Sound, so allow plenty of time. For an underwater perspective on this unique environment visit the underwater observatory.

Doubtful Sound is remote and best known for its silent grandeur. The trip begins in Manapouri and the journey takes you across Lake Manapouri, New Zealand's most beautiful lake, over Wilmot Pass and into Deep Cove for a truly memorable cruise. Both fiords can be explored by day or overnight cruise or kayak trips. Remember to look out for dolphins, seals and penguins.

Fiordland National Park is home to some of the world's greatest independent or guided day or multi-day hikes including the Milford, Kepler, Routeburn, Tuatapere Hump Ridge, Greenstone and Hollyford tracks. Walks can be combined with helicopter or fixed wing flights or jet boat rides. Fiordland has world class fishing and a stunning golf course or if relaxing is more your thing there is an awesome cinema and plenty of hotels, shops and restaurants.

The beautiful lakeside town of Te Anau, located on the shores of the South Island's largest lake, is the gateway to Fiordland and provides a perfect base to explore the area. Here you can enjoy a range of activities on or off the water, including the Te Anau glow worm caves.

In Arrowtown, fossicking about the river bed in search of gold flakes or the elusive nugget is fun for all the family, as is exploring the restored cottages of the Chinese Village along the Arrow River. Rides on the trail network range from easy to intermediate and a few advanced trails also feature. Whether walking or cycling, the trail is wonderful when experienced with family and friends and with a camera and picnic handy. Planning is easy with tools, tips and maps at queenstowntrail.co.nz

Testimonials

"Queenstown Convention Bureau team worked with us on the Amway Leadership Seminar Queenstown 2018 for almost 3 years which achieved 96% overall satisfaction score. It is the highest score in Amway incentive history.

The QCB team helped us to connect and build relationships with different stakeholders and partners and local Queenstown operators which all contributed to the success.

Their suggestions and inputs helped us to design a great programme for our delegates. The QCB also assisted us to donate our surplus to Salvation Army Queenstown which fits perfectly with our company value"

Carl Wen, Director of Events Amway - Shanghai, China "The Bureau provided our organisation with the necessary information to plan a successful conference. Having been briefed on our conceptual ideas the Bureau provided a list of tourism operators, their contacts details and assisted with arranging famils. Additional information on various local restaurants and wineries to meet the requirements of the delegates who operate high-end food and beverage facilities back in the US and deemed not to be missed met with universal approval."

Des Topp, Executive Officer Golf Managers Association of NZ

"I first reached out to the Bureau to enquire about our annual conference. They were efficient in providing me with a full range of options for my event and were very friendly and a pleasure to deal with. The information displayed in the proposal from the Queenstown suppliers was well laid out and easy to digest.

From the RFP we wanted to pursue Queenstown further and so utilised the Queenstown Bureau to assist with site inspections. They ensured the 24 hour itinerary meant we saw all the venues we wanted to and we weren't too rushed. This made the decision making process a lot easier."

Daniel Evans, Events & Membership Manager New Zealand Recreation Association (NZRA)

"Working with the Queenstown Bureau is a seamless process with thorough and impartial advice. They dissect each brief and ensure their proposals are accurate with a variety of different options for each aspect of the event.

The efficiency of the proposals being returned is phenomenal and it takes so much of the 'leg work' out of collating all the proposals from the local suppliers, which in the current climate with extremely tight deadlines is amazingly helpful."

Laura Tucker, Director of Events APAC TAG Global Travel & Event Management Melbourne, Australia

"The Queenstown Convention Bureau team conducted a great training session for our team which was very valuable for us to promote Queenstown to clients. The QCB always provide neutral views and suggestions which is really important to us. They are always professional and understand our clients needs and especially the Asian culture. On a recent site inspection they made our clients feel welcomed & special which ultimately helped them decide upon Queenstown as their next incentive destination."

Maggie Ma, Director of Accounts CYTS MICE, Beijing, China

Experience the pure adventure, exhilaration and sense of achievement as you climb using our via ferrata system, in one of New Zealand's most dramatic scenic settings – only minutes from downtown Queenstown! Via Ferrata means "iron road" in Italian and is a series of iron steps, fixed into the rock face and supported by a safety cable.

This system allows anyone with moderate fitness to scale heights that are normally only accessible to experienced rock climbers. No previous experience is necessary and we have a range of different routes to suit all ability levels.

We also work alongside many other local activity operators and can assist with organising an accompanying activity. Our team will work with you to arrange an exhilarating climbing experience which suits the needs of your group - ensuring your delegates leave with great memories of their Queenstown experience.

Most commonly known as New Zealand's most popular ski area, there's more to Cardrona Alpine Resort than meets the eye.

Strip back the snow in summer & experience the wide-open slopes in a whole different light. Catch a lift to the top of the Southern Alps & take a wander through alpine meadows or dial up the excitement & tear down the hill on a vast network of mountain bike & carting trails.

With alpine apartments & an extensive list of craft beers & wines to go with mouth-watering cuisine in The Lounge & Mezz, you might never want to leave.

Just a 16km / 20-minute drive from Queenstown on an easy sealed road with the Whakatipu Basin laid out below you. Enjoy fantastic 360° views of Queenstown and the Southern Alps from the top of our scenic chairlift ride. Space and time are yours.

Sit back and enjoy a summer chairlift ride to 1649m, high above the valley below. Enjoy world famous views over the Whakatipu Basin and back to the divide of the Southern Alps.

For small groups, a guided short walk around the summit rocks and out towards Mt Aurum along the ridgeline is available during summer. Or bring your own bike or rent from Torpedo 7 on mountain. The Coronet DH is renown as a good challenging ride against the Coronet XC on Rocky Gully that is a blue run and suitable for both uphill and downhill riding.

Have a go at parapenting. There are two operators that operate tandem parapente rides from Coronet Peak, Coronet Peak Tandems and SkyTrek. Contact them directly for enquiries.
