"The Steakhouse to end all arguments"

The menu showcases a veritable who's who of meats in all forms, sourced from the very best beef and lamb producers. Quality beef is carefully selected from the highest pedigree and defined by breed and feed.

You will find dishes like the Signature Prime Rib, selected from the finest 150-day grain fed Black Angus that has been dry aged then patiently roasted in their special oven. Or the Jervois cut eye fillet on the bone, farmed on the West Coast, which gives this animal an unmatched tenderness and flavour that can only come from cattle fed on New Zealand's magnificent grasslands.

Whichever cut or breed you choose, you are then faced with deciding, which amazing sauces will accompany your meal. The choices are all delicious and yours to make. There are steak houses, then there are steak houses and then there's Jervois Steak House.

Total seated capacity is 130 people.

The Bavarian brings a German-inspired, New Zealand-embraced dining experience to New Zealand!

Iconic credentials are built on three key attributes: great food, unbeatable German beers, and bucket loads of fun.

True to its Bavarian heritage, the affordable, family-friendly restaurant showcases classic dishes such as deliciously warm, fresh-baked pretzels, roast pork belly, huge pork knuckles that are thick with golden crackling, generous sharing platters of traditional German meats, sausages, side dishes and irresistible haus-baked apple strudel.

Renowned as the Haus of Schnitzels and Steins, The Bavarian celebrates the most popular German dish of all – the schnitzel, which partners perfectly with an unrivalled range of imported beers.

A unique blend of Bavarian-inspired diner and local pub, guests can enjoy good food, good beers, good times and the best of both worlds at The Bavarian.
