From humble beginnings in 1988, Nomad Safaris has grown to be one of the most iconic tourism operators in Queenstown. Passion is the foundation upon which the company is built. It's a feeling shared by all our employees and with our customers.

Our duty of care to our customers, the environment and ourselves means our experiences remain authentic. The Queenstown region is one of the most spectacular places in the world and by welcoming our visitors to our home we aim to exceed dreams with reality, add facts and thoughts, connect people and places and promote a genuine 100% Pure New Zealand Wellness Experience. Nomad Safaris, a 4WD adventure tour operation, was created in 1988 to take visitors to the goldfields area in small capacity off-road vehicles.

Nowadays Nomad Safaris is well known internationally for its Lord Of The Rings movie tours. Complementing the 4WD activity there is a fleet of ATV quad bikes and buggies, a fleet of electric bicycles, guided walking products and two all electric Tesla SUV vehicles targeting the eco-conscious luxury market.

Visit Fiordland

Contact: Stu Cordelle
Email: stu@greatsouth.nz
Website: www.fiordland.org.nz/
Telephone: +64 21 617 916

Fiordland is a UNESCO World Heritage Site of vast ancient rainforest, stunning fiords and renowned as the home of spectacular Piopiotahi Milford Sound, Patea Doubtful Sound and Tamatea Dusky Sound.

Your basecamp to explore this spectacular wilderness is Te Anau, a beautiful lakeside town offering a full range of visitor services. Te Anau is known as the "walking capital of the world" due its proximity to excellent walking tracks, including three of New Zealand's Great Walks; the Milford Track, Routeburn Track and Kepler Track.

Te Anau provides the ideal location for day trips to Milford Sound and Doubtful Sound, with guided tour options available for both. There are also Glowworm Cave tours departing daily, as well as multiple flightseeing options, jetboating, day hikes and historic lake cruises. Fiordland is the ideal location for anyone looking for adventure, biking, hiking, scenery, family time or for those just wanting to relax and slow down.

Lake Wānaka Tourism

Contact: Molly Hope
Email: molly@wanaka.co.nz

Telephone: +64 21 199 7511

Wānaka is more than just a beautiful place. A place for you to go beyond the everyday, to find connection, to experience the incredible energy that begins with the landscape, extends to the people and sets us apart.

Lake Wānaka, New Zealand is a beautiful year-round destination, set against the alpine backdrop of Mount Aspiring National Park. Downtown Wānaka is home to a vibrant mix of restaurants, cafes, shops and plenty of ambient areas to relax and enjoy the amazing scenery. The fishing is superb, there's a multitude of adventure activities on offer and anywhere you walk you'll find breath-taking scenery and wide open spaces.

Wānaka is found in the Otago region of the South Island of New Zealand. Surrounded by the mountains of the Southern Alps, Wānaka rests at the southern end of the lake for which it is named. Mt. Aspiring National Park and the surrounding landscape provide endless adventures - it's what brings people back to this place again and again.
