

Raleigh

Do & See

Marbles Kids Museum

This museum offers plenty of excitement for kids and grown-ups. Create some tunes on the Stepnotes, a set of musical stairs. Or take a watery adventure in the "Splash!" exhibit.

Art to Heart Corridor

This trail stretches from the North Carolina Museum of Art to the Fayetteville Street district in downtown Raleigh. Walkers and cyclists can see the three rings of sculptor Thomas Sayre's Gyre, the campus of North Carolina State University and the Red Hat Amphitheater.

Triangle Rock Club ▶

This facility has more than 17,000 square feet of rock-climbing walls and 9,550 square feet of bouldering terrain. You can also sign up for yoga or Pilates.

Eat & Stay

◀ The Pit

Located in a former meatpacking warehouse, The Pit offers up some eastern North Carolina-style whole-hog barbecue. The restaurant also sells a line of sauces and seasonings.

Stanbury

Seasonal ingredients are in the spotlight at this AAA Three Diamond restaurant. The menu changes regularly and has included dishes such as lamb tongue yakitori and Nashville hot sweetbreads.

AC Hotel Raleigh North Hills

This AAA Three Diamond property features rooms with a timeless European design. At the hotel's Level7 Rooftop Bar, guests can snack on tapas and sip handcrafted cocktails.

Discover more attractions and AAA Approved hotels and restaurants with AAA Mobile. Get it at AAA.com/Mobile.

Please call ahead to confirm the status and hours of any place you plan to visit. AAA Living's articles are only intended to inform readers of the available options in their states. Our magazine encourages readers to be mindful of all state and local orders related to COVID-19 safety guidelines and protocols.