

Other Attractions

While visiting Downtown Asheboro you'll find that you're centrally located to visit numerous exciting attractions in the area. A must-visit destination is the North Carolina Zoo, only a few miles from Downtown Asheboro and a treat for all ages.

The North Carolina Zoo is the largest land mass zoo in the world and is currently undergoing an expansion to add animals from Asia. The North Carolina Zoo, including Asheboro and the surrounding Randolph County area, also boast 19+ hiking trails from easy to hard for hiking enthusiasts.

For baseball fans, the Asheboro ZooKeepers Baseball team competes in the Coastal Plain League, an all-wooden bat league at the historic McCrary Ballpark in the summer season.

History buffs will be enchanted with memorabilia from WWI to the present that include an impressive collection of military artifacts, vehicles, weapons, equipment, uniforms, vintage airplanes, and a flight simulator at the North Carolina Aviation Museum and Hall of Fame. Do not miss viewing the Piper J-3 "Flitfire" flown by Orville Wright!

The largest private collection of antique Harley-Davidson® motorcycles in the country – 45 bikes from 1936 – 1978, can be found at the American Classic Motorcycle Museum. It includes a gift shop and Heritage Diner on site. To

About Asheboro

The City of Asheboro, named an All-America City by the National Civic League and a Great Main Street Award

Recipient is Home to the North Carolina Zoo and is conveniently located in Randolph County, the Heart of North Carolina. Asheboro is only 70 miles from the state's capital, Raleigh to the east, Charlotte to the South, and only half an hour from the Piedmont Triad region of Greensboro and High Point to the North. Our variety of activities within downtown and surrounding areas has gained Asheboro and the Heart of North Carolina recognition as a wonderful travel destination for all.

Downtown Asheboro offers a variety of restaurants to serve your taste buds from award-winning southern cuisine, traditional American, authentic Mexican and Italian dishes, to fresh farm-to-table plates, not to mention a sweet selection of coffee and dessert houses featuring an array of tasty treats and teas, a local craft brewery, tap house, wine bar and whiskey bar. If shopping is what you are looking for then Downtown Asheboro has that as well. You'll find distinctive shops locally owned and filled with antiques, collectibles, memorabilia, and more - along with modern artwork, furniture, home and garden décor, boutique clothing and shoes, vintage jewelry, and a bookstore. Downtown Asheboro also offers an exciting itinerary of street festivals, performing arts, concerts, art displays and more throughout the year at the Historic Sunset Theatre and in Bicentennial Park.

Come out and experience everything that Downtown Asheboro has to offer, you may find yourself calling Asheboro home once you visit!
