The Basics

Oklahoma State's men's tennis team will look to bounce back after falling to No. 17 North Carolina and No. 21 Columbia at ITA Kickoff Weekend. The Cowboys return home with a 5-2 mark, which ranks fourth in the Big 12. OSU has been dominant at the Greenwood Tennis Center this year, not allowing a single team point at home. The Pokes look to get back in the win column, when they face a 4-1 Washington team.

In the Rankings

Cowboy senior Tyler Zink finished last season ranked No. 122 in singles by the Intercollegiate Tennis Association. OSU appeared in the ITA rankings eight times a season ago, with its highest ranking at No. 49 on March 23. Zink and Alex Garcia also appeared in the doubles top 100 rankings with their respective partners to end the 2022 season.

Series History

Oklahoma State is 1-1 all time against Washington, with the last meeting, a 4-1 OSU victory in 2018. The Cowboys look to tilt the series in their favor as they take on the Huskies at 11 AM on February 12.

Streak and Trends

- OSU has won five straight matches at home, without allowing a team point to an opponent.
- Four out of five OSU wins were 7-0.
- The Cowboys are 102-29 at home all time.

An Oklahoma State Win Would...

- Improve OSU's record to 6-2.
- Make Oklahoma State undefeated at home in 2023.
- Give OSU a 2-1 all-time advantage over Washington.

Michael and Anne Greenwood Tennis Center

The home of Oklahoma State tennis since 2014
 50,000 square feet
 Indoor Capacity - 350 | Outdoor Capacity - 1,000

- ▶ 2016 USTA Facility Awards winner
- ▶ Selected to host the 2020 and 2024 NCAA Outdoor Championships

Home to the most electric matchday atmosphere in all of college tennis, the 50,000 square foot Michael and Anne Greenwood Tennis Center was built in 2014 and is located just north of Boone Pickens Stadium.

It is widely regarded to be among the elite college tennis venues in America and in 2016, was recognized as the USTA Facilities Award winner.

The Greenwood Tennis Center was chosen to host the NCAA Outdoor Championships in 2020 and in 2024.

The indoor facility houses six tennis courts, along with coaches' offices, locker rooms and a sports medicine hub complete with a hydrotherapy center. The main indoor grandstand can seat at least 350 spectators.

The center includes 12 lighted outdoor tennis courts in two sets of six. The courts are set up to allow fan viewing of each match being played in both the indoor and outdoor venues.

A Look at 2023...

In his second year as head coach at Oklahoma State, Dustin Taylor looks to make strides as a program heading into 2023. With six returning Cowboys and three new faces, this group is hungry for success.

Taylor also added assistant coach, Martin Redlicki, who was previously an assistant coach at Pepperdine from 2020-2022. Redlicki had quite the decorated career as a player at UCLA from 2014-2018 where he made First Team All-Pac 12 on three occasions. He also spent time on the ATP tour where he was ranked No. 381 in singles and No. 187 in doubles.

There is no shortage of veteran leadership on this squad, including a Central Florida Transfer, Chase Ferguson (5th year), Tyler Zink (senior) and Alex Garcia (senior). Leighton Allen and Isaac Becroft also bring experience to the roster, both in their third eligible year.

Freshman Alessio Basile and Carl Roothman look to add a spark to the roster in 2023. Basile came up just short of a tournament victory in the Fall, losing to teammate Tyler Zink and his doubles partner in the Norman Future. He racked up an impressive 10 wins in both singles and doubles during his fall campaign. Roothman claimed five victories in the fall season, with four coming from singles play.

This talented roster looks to take a big step this season as a combination of youth and experience take the court.
