The capital of Rhode Island, Providence, has a lot to love, including Plant City, the world's first plant-based vegan food hall, and WaterFire, an awe-inspiring downtown celebration that involves dramatic fire and art displays along the Providence and Woonasquatucket rivers. Providence has a big-city feel with many trendy bars, restaurants, and hotels, yet is far more laid-back than your typical urban break.

Looking to get out of the city? Head to Bristol on Mount Hope Bay and stay at the historic Bradford-Dimond-Norris House, a family-run bed-and-breakfast, and dig into fresh New England seafood at The Lobster Pot.
