The number of travelers prioritizing their wellness and opting for spa getaways and holistic retreats seems to be growing, and there's never been a better time to get in on the relaxation. But if the idea of a high price tag is holding you back, consider this: Most of the top destinations don't just include a single treatment — often, they come with an all-day affair of enjoying all the extra amenities like saunas, hot tubs and aromatherapy-infused relaxation rooms, making them truly worth the splurge. Ready to book one? Here are top picks for the best places for a spa weekend getaway.

If a family vacation plus a spa trip isn't in the budget, consider combining the two. While evaluating resorts for the Good Housekeeping Family Travel Awards, we've noticed that many have both spectacular kids' clubs and spas, so your entire crew will have the time of their lives. Another idea: Gift your college grad a spa trip rather than paying for an expensive (and potentially stressful) party. Or funnel the money you'd spend on an anniversary dinner into your spa fund.

You'd also save some serious cash by driving to one of the destinations rather than having to cover airfare. That's why we included glorious picks from all across the country so you're sure to find something in your neck of the woods. The Good Housekeeping team has personally vetted most of these selections so you can feel confident in the quality. Take a deep breath and explore all the ah(mazing) possibilities:

OCEAN HOUSE

Ocean House, Westerly, Rhode Island

An iconic New England beach resort, the Ocean House lives up to the hype. "The main structure of the hotel is a marvel to see, as its colonial-style layout is grand and so beautifully appointed," said a Good Housekeeping editor. He added that the resort's main restaurant served "the best food he had in town" and has views of Taylor Swift's Watch Hill residence. The property's 12,000-square-foot Ocean & Harvest Spa features a fitness center, movement studio with complimentary classes for hotel guests and saltwater laptop pool.

Signature Service: The Stress Melt Experience body treatment includes a jojoba scrub and massage featuring arnica, magnesium and sweet almond. Bliss!
