The temperatures may be dropping, but that doesn't mean you have to stay inside. Throughout New England, folks are bundling up and heading to the area's many winter festivals, where you can sip hot toddies, catch major air on a sled, or just cozy up by a crackling fire. Here are five of our favorites:

Newport Winter Festival

Newport, RI

Everyone associates Newport with the summer, but the Rhode Island city goes full-blown Winter Wonderland come February. The Newport Winter Festival is a lively extravaganza of food, drink, and festival celebrations. Curl up with a hot cider at the fire pits at Gurney's, or watch the masters as they craft ice sculptures. If you've got little ones with you, they'll find plenty of things to do as well; the children's fair has events ranging from a magic show and live music to a reptile exhibit.
