

Ring in the new year at these massive celebrations across New England

At one New England spot, a beach ball will drop at midnight.

Midnight fireworks over Boston Harbor during a previous First Night Boston.
—Josh Reynolds for The Boston Globe

By Kristi Palma December 26, 2018

If your first goal of 2019 is to celebrate the new year in a big way, you'll find plenty of opportunities to do so across New England on Monday night. Discover where some of the biggest New Year's Eve parties are taking place across the region.

One Providence NYE Celebration in Providence

You can be a part of Providence's first-ever ball drop at the One Providence NYE Celebration at Waterplace Park. The party will start at 7 p.m., when guests will be able to take in a laser light show and food and beverages from area food trucks. The ball drop and countdown will begin at 11:55 p.m., followed by a fireworks display at midnight. For those who want to spend the evening inside, Skyline at Waterpark will host a black tie gala and rooftop celebration, featuring food, champagne, and a performance by Aerosmith tribute band Aeromyth. Tickets can be purchased here. (Monday, Dec. 31 at 7 p.m., Waterplace Park, Providence)