

BRIT + CO

BookTok's 2025 Vacation Inspiration: Where to Travel Based On Your Favorite Reads

Books can really transport you to other worlds, all just through the power of words — but what if you used those words to inspire your actual travels? The Zimmerman Agency curated a list of everywhere you should vacation in 2025, based on your fave BookTok reads! From tropical getaways to cozy winter wonderlands, there really is an escape for every kind of traveller...and every kind of reader! Don't believe us? Check it out!

Here's where you should travel in 2025, based on your favorite BookTok books!

BRIT + CO

15. The Wedding People by Alison Espach: Newport, Rhode Island

Set in Newport, Alison Espach's novel The Wedding People captures a world of love, drama and timeless elegance – a perfect setting for a romantic coastal getaway. Stay at the luxurious Chanler at Cliff Walk overlooking the sea which feels like stepping into the pages of Espach's novel. Stroll along the iconic Cliff Walk, taking in the stunning views of the ocean while reminiscing the scenes from the novel. Spend your day exploring the splendor of Newport's famed "summer cottages" at the Bellevue Avenue and indulge in the freshest oysters at The Dining Room at The Vanderbilt. Top off your stay with a romantic sunset sail in the 'sailing capital of the world' along Newport's rocky shoreline, where charming lighthouses and historic mansions set the perfect backdrop for a romantic escape.