

4 Hotels with Museum-Worthy Art Collections

Art has come a long way in the hospitality industry. Hotels now feature curators and original works. From the 21c Museum hotels to the stellar collection at the new Park MGM, art is now front and center.

Here's a look at four hotels boasting worthy collections, each located in destinations that pulsate with art and culture.

Ocean House, Watch Hill, Rhode Island

Perched atop a bluff in Watch Hill, Ocean House is Rhode Island's first and only AAA Five Diamond and Forbes Five Star hotel. The property boasts an impressive 250-piece art collection with work by Ludwig Bemelmans, which includes original work from the famous "Madeline" children's book.

Ocean House also offers an Artist In Residence program which aims to foster collaboration in the community and celebrates the arts while furthering art education. Tours of the galleries, artist interactions where they explain their inspirations, private art watercolor lessons, and Cork & Canvas events are all offered to guests as part of this initiative.

oceanhouseri
Ocean House RI

View Profile

Want more culture in Rhode Island? CLICK HERE.