Ocean House

WHERE: Rhode Island

Ocean House in Watch Hill, Rhode Island, is a historic, Five Star Five Diamond property that overlooks the water from a beachfront location perched above the Atlantic Ocean. Its sprawling, wraparound porch offers guests an inviting place to enjoy the awe-inspiring water views. Seasonally during summer months, the Verandah portion of the expansive porch also serves a full raw bar of bites and traditional New England specialties, making it an idyllic spot to enjoy a true “sea-to-table” experience.
