

25 Best Girls' Weekend Getaway Destinations to Visit With Your Besties

Quality time spent with your closest girlfriends is a necessity. Whether you all have the chance to catch up over drinks or plan a night in ordering takeout and watching your favorite rom-coms, the bonding experience of enjoying the company of your besties is always time well spent. It's because of these unforgettable moments that planning the ultimate girls' weekend getaway should be at the top of your agenda this year.

When it comes to traveling on a budget, we've rounded up the best destinations that lend themselves to soaking in a little girl time and maximizing the fun all while minding your pockets. If you're planning to indulge in a spa weekend, we have listed destinations like Palm Springs, California, and Scottsdale, Arizona, which provide visitors with wellness experiences. For groups that prefer a more active trip filled with water sports, bike riding or hiking, Cabo San Lucas; Mexico, Park City, Utah; and Watch Hill, Rhode Island are also great options.

All-inclusive resorts, cozy hotels and vacation home rentals help you make planning a bachelorette trip, birthday trip or reunion weekend stay in any location a total no brainer. All that's left to do is to grab your girl squad and go. Happy travels!

15

Watch Hill, Rhode Island

If Taylor Swift owns a house in Watch Hill then it must be a good girls' trip spot, right? Consider this one of the most picturesque destinations in the United States. Local businesses like cute coffee shops and boutiques add a special touch to this seafront town. Spend your days relaxing on the beach, biking along perfectly paved paths or reading poolside. Whether you stay at a hotel like Ocean House or a house rental, stream rom-coms at night to complete the vibe.

EXPLORE WATCH HILL