“Fur” The Love of Dogs: National Dog Day Across the U.S

National Dog Day (August 26) is not only a day to celebrate our four-legged loved ones, but to honor their heroism in our everyday lives – whether giving us comfort in tough times and assisting first responders, to providing military tracking and safety, or guidance for the disabled.

So if you're traveling during the Dog Days of Summer you may want to check out these 19 destinations and properties that offer unique programming and perks in appreciation for everything our furry friends do, from outdoor adventures with plenty of room to roam, to pooch-pampering packages and paw-some amenities.

Rhode Island

The sun is shining, the beaches are beckoning and your pup deserves a getaway, recognized as the Ocean State, Rhode Island offers the perfect destination for a pup-cation. Touting 400 miles of New England coastline, Rhode Island is just a short “Rhode” trip away from most major cities in New England and touts state-wide fun for travelers and their four-legged friends. Stop off in Providence for a paw-some time with your pup, from ample dog parks to breweries such as Union Station Brewery and restaurants like Rogue Island Local Kitchen & Bar. Catch some Z’s at Hotel Providence, which welcomes very good boys + girls, and if you’re looking for a day care option for your fur baby, the hotel gives two paws up to The Barking Lot, located just 7 minutes from the hotel and bookable through the property!

Looking for something closer to the coast, Hotel Viking in Newport offers multiple pet packages in partnership with Lucky Dog Resort including “Daycation Dog” which includes chauffeured service to and from Lucky Dog Resort, and a supervised day of play with friends, for $15/hour as well as “Newport Nights” which includes chauffeured service to and from Lucky Dog Resort, luxury accommodations and around the clock concierge service, for $100/night. While in Newport pets and travelers can go for a stroll along Cliff Walk, for incredible views of the city, or visit dog-friendly state parks like Brenton and Fort Adams. Newport also boasts various pet-friendly eateries like Diego’s, Knot Norm’s and The Reef.
