

Calling All Dark Souls! Here's the Ultimate Halloween Travel Bucket List

August 27, 2019
by LINDSAY PAIGE STEIN

237 Shares

It's no secret that the US has some of the spookiest cities in the world, so why not get into the Halloween spirit by visiting them and experiencing their haunts firsthand? Whether it's a road trip to one of the most outrageous haunted houses or a quick weekend getaway to a town that's known for psychic readings and tarot cards, you can't go wrong with a chill-inducing trip this Fall. From graveyards to paranormal hot spots, we've rounded up the ultimate Halloween travel bucket list, so pack your witch's hat and manifest good vibes.

4 Providence, RI

Providence's Jack-o'-Lantern Spectacular from Oct. 3 to Nov. 3 at Roger Williams Park Zoo has over 5,000 intricately carved pumpkins. You can see the incredible display by air on the Soaring Eagle Zip Ride, which includes a nighttime aerial view of the zoo and the ghoulish creations.