19 Summer Weekend Getaways From NYC You Should Book ASAP

THE SURF LODGE/HERO BEACH CLUB/MAYFLOWER INN & SPA

THE ZIMMERMAN AGENCY

It's okay to admit that sometimes you need a break from the rise and grind of New York City. While winter brings with it a plethora of snow-covered destinations, summertime in the city brings with it hot, sticky, humid and hazy weather that even die-hard New Yorkers need to escape from. (Hello, summering in the Hamptons.) So, when you find yourself in need of just such a break, we've found 19 summer weekend getaways—all within driving distance of the Big Apple—where you can get a much-needed change of scenery while soaking in the sun. From Memorial Day onward, get the R&R you deserve and spend a few days unwinding at one of these local getaways.

OCEAN HOUSE

12. Ocean House

- Distance from NYC: 3 hours
- Why We Recommend It: seasonal activities such as wine and culinary classes; croquet; history tours; movie screenings; yoga and Pilates; yachting; children's activities; pet friendly
- Rate: from $625/night
- Top Things to Do: Napatree Point Conservation Area, Atlantic Beach Park, Watch Hill Lighthouse

For those looking to leave the Empire State entirely, consider Ocean House in Rhode Island. The Relais & Châteaux property features a saltwater pool, yoga studio and children's programming, in addition to movie screenings and history tours. You'll also be waited on hand and foot as Ocean House treats vacationers to a butler service that aims to meet your every need from your room to the beach.
