Relax, drink and mingle with the hottest inedible menu item around – cigars! Cigar-related events and offerings are popping up across the globe capturing the interest of novices and connoisseurs alike. Ranging from exclusive custom cigars to elaborate menus of globally sourced mild, medium, and full-bodied cigars, various hotels, and beach clubs offer something different for those who want to partake in the unique experience.

Those looking for a bit of history can visit Hotel Haya in the “Cigar Capital of the World” in Tampa’s historic Ybor City district, or head to Texas to enjoy a curated selection of some of the world’s most popular brands, such as Cohiba, Montecristo, Arturo Fuente, Romeo & Julieta. Whether you like to pair yours with scotch, bourbon, tequila, or rum, curated cigar parties and solo samplings are on the rise!

Cigar-loving travelers will adore the new Safari Tent Scotch and Cigar Tasting Experience at The Preserve Sporting Club & Residences, the most amenity-rich sporting club in the country. In this imaginative pop-up by Ocean House Collection, guests are invited to taste a curated assortment of five Laphroaig scotches and sample from a selection of Cohiba cigars, including the highly-rated Cohiba Royale and the Cohiba Black Gigante. Synonymous with extravagant taste, Cohiba's expertise in blending and artistry in cigar making come together to create a collection of rich, dimensional cigars for luxurious smoking occasions. Visitors will lounge in two luxury tents and relax in front of a wood-burning fire pit while indulging in a Safari Tent menu of charcuterie, cheese, chocolate, and roasted nuts. Cards and chess, checkers, and backgammon boards are also available. Visitors can enjoy the Safari Tents as a two-hour tasting experience, or on selected days as an overnight resort guest or a Preserve Club member.
