

TRAVEL

Love Cigars? Here Are Some of the World's Best Cigar Experiences

Ivy Griffith · August 24, 2021

Few things are associated with luxury and relaxation like cigars. Seen as one of the world's favorite long-time guilty pleasures, fans of the hobby are often looking for the next fine cigar. Now, hotels and clubs around the world are tailoring experiences just for cigar lovers, inviting them in and treating them to a next-level immersion in their favorite. CELEB takes a look at some of the best cigar-centric experiences in the world.

News from...

Unique Monthly
Visitors: 106,860

East Coast Cigars

The final stop on our East Coast tour lands in Rhode Island; Richmond, to be precise. At the Preserve Sporting Club & Residences, you can enjoy the first luxury pop-up of its kind; a safari-themed tasting tent. The Preserve website explains, “The first luxury pop-up destination of its kind in North America, this two hour, private scotch and cigar tasting experience allows guests to gather and relax in two finely-appointed luxury tents, each with comfortable seating, rich wood floors, oriental rugs, wood plank ceilings and other rustic touches.

Guests will enjoy a curated assortment of Laphroaig scotches, ranging from Laphroaig 10 Year to Laphroaig 25 Year and a selection of Cohiba cigars, among the finest handcrafted cigars available today, including the highly-rated Cohiba Royale and the Cohiba Black Gigante.”

Whether you’re hitting up the East Coast cigar stops, traveling to the country’s interior, or hopping the ocean to enjoy Bermuda, each of these locations has cigars sure to delight discerning guests.