WORLD ART DAY TRAVELS

In honor of World Art Day on April 15, 2021, here are some of the best destinations and hotels for curated art experiences from around the world. Whether it be an outdoor mural scene, a hotel's private art collection, an artist-in-residence program, or new exhibits scattered throughout a country, there are many ways to celebrate World Art Day! And while safe travel may not be possible yet for everyone, virtual experiences are a great way to show appreciation and support.

DOMESTIC

Providence, Rhode Island

Known as Rhode Island's creative capital, Providence is one of the country's most diverse and vibrant cities for the arts, due in large part as the home to The Rhode Island School of Design (RISD) which cultivates a creative community. Providence's artistic offerings are best experienced on foot via Avenue Concept, Rhode Island's first privately funded public art program. They offer two self-guided tours offering comprehensive stops with dozens of murals and sculptures to visit in Downtown and South Side/West End. As of August, a new latinx-led public art banner project honoring the healthcare workers who have helped manage the COVID-19 crisis has launched throughout the city.
