Providence, RI

Start your Rhode Island adventure in the capital city. Take a leaf-peeping stroll and admire Providence's 18th- and 19th-century homes along College Hill. Visit the RISD Museum and the John H. Chafee National Wildlife Refuge and the many dining hotspots in the area like Oberlin or Persimmon for Modern American cuisine. Venture off from here for the Rhode Island foliage drive through charming coastal villages like Little Compton and Tiverton Four Corners. South Kingstown is home to scenic beaches, rustic farmlands, and historic landmarks. Sheperd's Run is a lovely stay in South Kingstown with a vineyard and tasting room in a lovely setting.
