

Celebrate Halloween Around The World At These Not-So-Spooky Destinations

These not-so-spooky destinations guarantee a fun Halloween experience.

Halloween is one of the biggest celebrations in the world, and it's the perfect time for the occasion fans to enjoy a different kind of traveling experience. There are several destinations across the world offering unique and fascinating festivities for the event, most of which feature costume contests, fireworks, pumpkins, and people wearing skull masks. Some of the most common activities include ghost tours, costume parties, and sharing of creepy tales. But one doesn't have to visit the most haunted places to enjoy the festival. Celebrate Halloween at the not-so-spooky destinations.

9/10

Providence, Rhode Island: Jack O'Lantern Spectacular

Held at the Roger Williams Park Zoo, Jack O'Lantern Spectacular is New England's best Halloween party. The event has been going strong for over 30 years in Providence and features more than 6,000 carved pumpkins. The locals will be celebrating 75 years of Television at the event. At the end of the celebration, about 20,000 pumpkins are used. Suitable for tourists who love art and Halloween, there is no better event than this one. Travelers will not experience any haunts except a fantastic artistic party that would thrill both kids and adults.