Blackstone Valley, Rhode Island

Recognized as the birthplace of the American Industrial Revolution, Blackstone Valley is home to important historic sites such as Slater Mill, the first successful cotton-spinning factory in the country. The Blackstone River Bikeway and Lincoln Woods provides ample opportunity to explore the local nature and wildlife. Many family-owned farms within the valley allow you to pick your own seasonal fruits, such as apples, a perfect fall memory to make with your loved ones. For the adrenaline junkies, take a ride on the Swamp Scare, a riverboat tour around Blackstone River and learn about the mysteries that lay hidden beneath the water.
