

New US Hotels Opening in Late 2020, Early 2021

HOTEL & RESORT | PATRICK CLARKE | OCTOBER 06, 2020

PHOTO: Hotels are offering temporary housing to health-care workers and first responders. (Photo via iStock/Getty Images Plus/ VTT Studio)

Coming Attractions

Despite the COVID-19 pandemic, travelers can still look forward to experiencing a plethora of new hotels across the country in the coming months. Late 2020 and early 2021 will be a busy period for marquee openings. Here are a few of the highly anticipated new properties set to open their doors.

PHOTO: The Beatrice – Providence, Rhode Island. (photo courtesy of The Beatrice)

The Beatrice, Providence, Rhode Island

Located in a historic building in Providence's Westminister neighborhood, The Beatrice is a 47-room luxury boutique hotel scheduled to open in December 2020. One of the property's many highlights will include an exclusive rooftop bar and restaurant.