

Top Spots for Seeing Breathtaking Seas of Spring Blooms

From stunning fields of poppies to acres of tulips, whether they're cultivated collections or those that run wild, here are some of the best places to soak up the season's most colorful spectacles.

By: Lisa Meyers McClintick

Daffodils Brighten Rhode Island

A million sunny yellow daffodils herald spring along the coast of Rhode Island. Coinciding events include a bike ride, garden tours, vintage car parade, lecturers, and the light-hearted "paw-rade" of dogs dressed like daffodils.

