

WELCOME!

Located in the heart of the Blue Ridge Mountains, the Roanoke Valley in Virginia's Blue Ridge awaits as your next getaway destination. This former railroad town has blossomed into a vibrant center of art, culture, and culinary creativity, while remaining true to its roots of community, hospitality and a love for the outdoors.

You can spend a Blue Ridge Day gazing at the beauty of nature along the Blue Ridge Parkway or Appalachian Trail, sampling the delicious flavors of over 20 local wineries and breweries, including the award-winning Chateau Morrisette Winery, and touring iconic sites such as The Natural Bridge of Virginia.

Plan a Blue Ridge Day around all the amazing things to do. You can go on an underground adventure at Dixie Caverns and Natural Bridge Caverns. See the friendly faces of the adorable red pandas at Mill Mountain Zoo.

Walk through fascinating exhibits, such as the exotic butterfly habitat at the Science Museum of Western Virginia or unique galleries at the Taubman Museum of Art. And experience the regions rich railroad heritage at the Virginia Museum of Transportation, which is home to many iconic steam locomotives.

History is alive and well through the fascinating museums and major historical sites that let you walk in the footsteps of soldiers, explorers and statesmen who've had a presence in the region. Visit where Thomas Jefferson used to take retreats at his Poplar Forest estate. Pay tribute to national icons at the National D-Day Memorial and the Booker T. Washington National Monument.

OUTDOORS

With over 600 miles of trails and multiple waterways,Virginia's Blue Ridge will serve as your mountain playground for outdoor adventure. Take your picture at the ledge at McAfee Knob, relax on the water at Smith Mountain Lake, have a scenic drive on the Blue Ridge Parkway, and float your way down the James River.

ROANOKE STAR

No trip to Virginia's Blue Ridge is complete without a visit to the Roanoke Star. This 100-foot-tall, iconic structure sits atop Mill Mountain and provides a breathtaking overlook of the surrounding valley and mountains.
