DAY ONE

- Start your visit by touring the Susan B. Anthony Museum & House, where the legendary civil rights leader lived for 40 of her most politically active years. Relive the historic moments of her life, be inspired by her amazing story and even stand in the front parlor where she was arrested for voting in 1872.
- Head over to the Strong Museum of Play, the interactive museum that is truly fun for everyone! Little ones will enjoy walking down Sesame Street and visiting with Elmo and friends in Elmo's World, while the kids at heart can play for a high score on the arcade games in eGameRevolution and Pinball Playfields. The whole family will have a blast walking through the Dancing Wings Butterfly Garden and remembering favorite pastimes on display in the National Toy Hall of Fame.
- On your way to your next stop, grab a quick meal from F.L.X. Wienery at Roc Brewing Co. Start with your protein – with options like hometown favorite Zweigle's red or white hots, then pick your style of toppings. You can go simply "dressed" (lettuce, tomato, onion and mayo), or explore other exciting options like K-Town with kimchi, cilantro, fried egg and miso mayo. F.L.X. Wienery is open for lunch Thursdays through Sundays.
- Over 5,000 years of history lie within the Memorial Art Gallery \(MAG\) – from contemporary movements to antique artwork and relics. In addition to perusing the indoor gallery, visitors can marvel at Centennial Sculpture Park, a showcase of public art spread out across ten acres of the Gallery's grounds.
- Whether you're looking to bowl a few frames or catch up over cocktails, Radio Social is the place to go. Located within the historical Stromberg-Carlson warehouse, this retro-style social club contains 34 bowling lanes, plenty of lounge areas, seasonal lawn games and two bars. Currently open evenings Wednesday – Saturday and for Sunday brunch from 11am-2pm.

Food stop! If you're looking for a bite to eat, Radio Social also provides two in-house culinary experiences. Ophira is Middle Eastern fare served in their front dining room and Shortwave provides bar-style snacks from their back bar.

Their breakfast menu is expansive with both savory and sweet options – and with over 20 varieties of waffles, pancakes, and French toast, we're sure the whole family will leave smiling and satisfied.

- Walk along Park Avenue, a cultural and historic neighborhood in Rochester. Although it is well-known for its summer art festival, Park Ave is “a street for all seasons,” coming alive with different colors throughout the year. Or visit any of the various cafes, bakeries, restaurants and pubs for a little pick-me-up.
