

Great Umpqua FOOD TRAIL

SOUTHERN OREGON

FARMERS MARKETS,
RIVERSCAPES, BOUTIQUE WINE

TRAVEL TIPS

The Great Umpqua Food Trail is open to visitors throughout the year and is designed to explore at your own pace—you are welcome to start and finish wherever you like. To ensure a positive experience, please check the hours of operation for each business online or by phone and note when advance reservations or appointments are required.

Before setting out along the Great Umpqua Food Trail, map your route ahead of time to make it easier to navigate remote areas without cell service.

High season varies per business, but is typically June–October. Seasonality of key products is listed below:

- Cherries: June–August
- Blueberries: July–August
- Peaches: July–August
- Pumpkin patches: September–October

The working farms along this trail provide some of the most unique and engaging experiences. We ask that you respect the invitation to enter each property and be cautious around farm animals and equipment. Children must be supervised at all times and you should be prepared to follow all site-specific rules. For your safety and comfort, be prepared with appropriate footwear, sun protection and water.

Visit experiencerooseburg.com for culinary and agri-tourism events in the Umpqua Valley. Annual wine events in the Umpqua Valley include the Greatest of the Grape and the Barrel Tour.

We hope your experience along the Great Umpqua Food Trail doesn't end when you leave the area. We encourage you to bring a taste of your journey back home to share with friends and family as a reminder of the bounty available in the Great Umpqua region.

RAMBLING RIVERS ROSEBURG TO IDLEYLD PARK

A wild river leads through the woods to a variety of local culinary delights.

Outdoor adventures await along the North Umpqua Wild and Scenic River east of Roseburg on the North Umpqua Highway (Hwy 138). A short jaunt to Susan Creek Falls is well worth taking, rewarded by a satisfying lunch and Oregon spirits at the historic Steamboat Inn (12). Save room for a slice of warm berry pie while admiring the rushing river from the patio.

Arrange a tasting at River Ranch Oregon Olive Oil (13), where riverside orchards yield aromatic olive varieties that are masterfully captured in liquid form.

On the way back west, visit Colliding Rivers Park where two mighty rivers converge. Closer to Roseburg, you'll find Winchester Dam Fish Ladder for an underwater view of migrating steelhead and salmon. Taste the terroir at nearby boutique vineyard Reustle-Prayer Rock (14) while gazing at hidden valleys or exploring their wine cave. Then raise a glass at Cooper Ridge Vineyard (18), perched high above the North Umpqua River.

Follow the currents to Roseburg for a slew of tasty dinner options. The wood-fired pizza is one of a kind at Old Soul Pizza (29), with creative toppings and cozy digs downtown. At Backside Brewing (26), comfort food complements a sizable selection of craft beers, including special brews with notes of coffee or peach. Sit back and savor the flavors of this special area — you've earned it.

The numbers adjacent to business names indicate their listing on the map.

The businesses listed in this brochure were selected for their commitment to promoting and sourcing products that are grown, raised or created in the Great Umpqua region. By visiting these properties you are getting a taste of the local bounty while supporting local businesses.

OLD WAGON ROADS CANYONVILLE TO LOOKINGGLASS

Historic markers and modern makers offer an immersion of the senses.

Start your morning off in Canyonville at Pioneer Park for details about the Applegate Trail, a mid-19th century alternative to westernmost part of the Oregon Trail.

Continue along the historic route to detour for fresh-baked confections at Happy Donut (39) and neighboring Goodog Bakery (38), which sells treats for both people and pets.

More history awaits at Millsite Park, where interpretive kiosks shed light on the incredible emigrant journey and historic wagon ruts remain less than a quarter mile away.

Over in Winston, stop at Brosi's Sugartree Farms (35) for a sweet snack at their farmstand before heading over to Wildlife Safari for some family fun. This animal park offers a drive-through experience and is one of the top cheetah breeding research centers on Earth.

The neighboring community of Lookingglass enjoys quiet fame for its country store built and continuously operated since 1852. Celebrate modern makers on Thursdays, from spring to the holidays, at the Lookingglass Grange Farm Market (34), featuring an array of talented food and craft vendors.

Then steer your convoy south to Historic Downtown Grants Pass the gateway to the Rogue Valley Food Trail.

SIPS TO SEA ELKTON TO REEDSPORT

Reap the rewards of a river route that unites with the Wild Rivers Coast Food Trail.

Your joyful journey begins with blueberry picking at the family-owned Estill Farms (1) in Elkton. Then delight your appetite with neighboring Tomaselli's Pastry Mill & Café (5) — reinventing homestyle cooking with specialty sandwiches and mouthwatering baked goods like elk claw, a local favorite.

Cool coastal mountain valleys make the Elkton AVA a distinctive wine region — with three top vineyards all within two miles. Sip estate wines at Bradley Vineyards (7), the town's longest-standing, family-owned vineyard, and Brandborg Vineyard & Winery (4), where pours can be enjoyed with a downtown patio view. Continue west to River's Edge Winery (3) for small-batch pinot noir and a glimpse of the winemaking process taking place just behind the tasting bar.

Before leaving Elkton, visit the enchanting butterfly pavilion at Elkton Community Education Center and grab a smoothie or pastry at the student-operated Outpost Café (2) to fuel the next leg. A hand-hewn replica of historic Fort Umpqua is just steps away, down the trail through the native plant park.

As the Great Umpqua Food Trail ends, another one begins west at the Oregon Coast. Head towards the Pacific Ocean where the historic Umpqua River Lighthouse Museum marks the start of the Wild Rivers Coast Food Trail.
