Rowan Arts Council

Arts & Cultural Development Grant

PURPOSE:

Arts & Cultural Development (ACD) Grants are available for arts & cultural development organizations and individual artists seeking to expand access to arts and cultural opportunities in Rowan County.

The ACD grants are designed to support the vision and mission of the Rowan Arts Council by providing direct support to arts and cultural partners in Rowan County.

ACD Grant Areas of Support:

- Arts education
- Individual artists (residency, teaching, projects etc.)
- Acquisition of public art and or support of acquiring public art
- Development of new arts and cultural related facilities and programs
- Youth/children related arts and cultural initiatives
- Diversity and multicultural arts and cultural outreach and programs
- Collaborative initiatives between multiple organizations and artists
- Arts and cultural shows, events and activities
- Arts and cultural advocacy
- Support and matching funds for community wide arts and cultural programs applying for and seeking substantial grants.
- Start up initiatives

ACD Grants are not to be used for:

- General operations
- Funding staff
- Programs outside of Rowan County
- Purchase of equipment and/or supplies that serve no primary purpose in providing arts and culture in Rowan County

ACD Grant recipient requirements:

- Organizations must demonstrate financial solvency
- Submit annual financial statements
- Individual artists seeking ACD funds must demonstrate basic financial solvency in relation to the ability to fulfill the program to which grant funds are being requested
- Organization or individual does not already receive City or County arts and cultural funding. The RAC Board may make exemptions based on programs and or partnership opportunities involving matching funds.
