Organizational & Financial Update

Meacham reported that as of 3.31.23, occupancy tax revenues for fiscal year 2022-23 on an accrual basis are 9.2% ahead of budget. Meacham said revenue is trending well. The March 2023 actuals for occupancy taxes were $121,202 and 6% ahead of March 2022 and were an all-time high for March. The April 2023 occupancy taxes are in line for $122,000 and approximately 2.5% ahead of April 2022 and will be another all-time high collection for the month of April. Meacham reported that year to date revenue on an accrual basis has exceeded expenses by $76,575. Occupancy is down slightly but the rate is up slightly. May's rates are trending about $6 ahead of May 2022.

Meacham reported total current assets of $473,952 which are up $48,903 from the month ending March 31st. Accounts Receivables equaled $252,021, which is an increase of $19,991 from the month ending March 31st. The receivables consist primarily of March and April occupancy taxes. Cash on hand as of 4-30-23 equaled $221,075 which is an increase of $28,911 from the month ending March 31, 2023.

Meacham reviewed the proposed 2023-24 budget and presented it for review and discussion.

Meacham said that there is not a great deal of changes to the overall goals and objectives for the coming year. Staff will lean toward getting the trolley system back to full strength. Meacham said there would continue to be a focus on relationships with businesses and hospitality partners. The key points of this budget include digital marketing infrastructure and marketing, utilization with partnership with influencers, growing sales, marketing, allocating resources to the capital plan, supporting staff and general operations, and the defined approach to the capital projects.

Meacham stated the 2023-24 budget is $2.2 million, which is slightly up from last year. The total budget will include carrying over the $500,000 of the ARPA money approved by the County to go to the wayfinding project from this fiscal year to next fiscal year. The funds should come in July of 2023. Occupancy tax revenue is projected at $1.4 million. Meacham noted that this is a slight decrease from this year. Staff are projecting little to no growth in occupancy tax.

Meacham briefly reviewed the major segments of the budget and noted that the Gateway Bldg. lease rate will be increased over the next three years to bring lease rates more in line with the market rates. There will be a staggered increase starting in year one at $12.50 per foot and moving towards $15.50 per foot in the third year. The increases will allow for a capital reserve to be developed to handle any large cost that could come up as the building continues to age. Appropriation to the CVB has increased from $1 million to $1.1 million, tourism development increases this year to $250,000, most of the rest is generally in line with last year's budget. An additional staff position is slated for this fiscal year. The position has been advertised but the applicant pool has not met expectations relative to the position. The position will most likely be pulled, recast and considered at a later date in time.

Furr reviewed the marketing program budget sections and the projections for marketing expenses for 2023-24. Michalec reviewed the proposed digital infrastructure marketing expenses for the coming year.

The proposed 2023-24 will be available for review for 30 days. The announcement of a public hearing will be published in the Salisbury Post. The proposed 2023-24 budget information as well as all previous budget information is on the visitrowancountync.com website and a hardcopy of the proposed budget will be available for public review at the Visitor Information desk.

Motion: Craig Pierce made the motion to set a public meeting for June 21, 2023, at Noon for the 2023-24

Budgets.

Program of Work

Michalec reported that the email newsletter open rate year to date is 34.59%. The open rate was up 13.5% over April 2022 and subscribers were up 300 over April 2022. The visitrowancountync.com website had a big month thanks to Cheerwine web traffic which was very heavy. The site had 18,000 clicks, up 26% year over year. Year to date there are a total of 43,000 users and 87,000 page views.

Michalec noted that the package platform, Root Rez has changed their name to Ripe. There have been 23 reservations with 29 room nights with packages being 82% of those. Michalec reported that there are now 10 affiliates in the Ripe booking feature. Catawba College has added the widget to two pages on their website.

Michalec reports that the total social media following sits right at 33,000. The top stories for the month of April were Jiggy with the Piggy, Gold Hill Rail Trail History Hike, and the Farmer's Market opening. The blog had 3,004 views in April with 922 of those being Cheerwine Festival, and 507 views for Jiggy with Piggy. Both of those events drove a great deal of traffic to our site and platforms.

Michalec reported that Jenna, our influencer partner has been busy visiting Jiggy with the Piggy, the Cannon Ballers and Patterson Farm in April and early May. She has had over 1.8 million views and 200,000 likes on her videos which is incredible traffic. She is tagging #visitrowan in all the places she goes. Michalec added that staff utilized a one-time influencer on April 1st. She attended the Easter Bunny Express at NC Transportation Museum and was paid with tickets to the event. Her Instagram post received over 8,000 views. Total digital impact year to date is 325,000 with a reach of 2.6 million.

Michalec said the Datafy contract runs out in August and staff will not renew the contract as staff has not seen any significant changes in date over the last year that would warrant the continued investment. For the past 90 days, there were 701,000 unique visitors from at least 25 miles away and 50,000 over the previous 90 days. Michalec noted that total trips coming for attractions was 74,000 and total coming for dining was 156,000.

Furr reported that paid marketing placements for this year were 545, and include social media ads, ppc, outdoor billboards, radio and tv spots. Furr reported that Arrowood is continuing to do a great job with trolleys. Trolleys continue to be very busy with both events and weddings. Year to date there are 92 bookings with 16 coming up in the next 90 days. Meacham reminded the group of the Saturday historic trolley tour that was available for visitors for years. He noted that with the increased use of the trolleys for group rentals on Saturday's staff will be looking at specialty tours as opposed to the regular Saturday tour that often did not fill up. Staff will be balancing the overall ROI on which is best in regard to offering a set seasonal Saturday tour.

Furr that reported the Stay and play packages are going well, DOWT started this month with 13 packages booked and 18 room nights. The Polar Express package will return in June. Furr reported that the groups are back. Furr said the Aspire National Dance competition was at Catawba College this weekend and it went very well. This is their first year in Rowan County and the group sold out with 457 routines and 550 dancers. This group are already booked here again for 2024 as well.

Furr said the Southeastern Little League Tournament group will be here again in July with a strong possibility there will be more girls competing this year. Smoke Out is also returning in 2024. The group told Furr they are growing the event, adding an extra day and have plans to stay in Rowan County going forward.

Furr referred the members to the running tourism support chart and noted that three events coming up are being supported including Earth Day Jam, the Salisbury Sculpture Show, The Cheerwine Festival, and the Dragon Boat race.

Furr said that all things summer is what is being promoted over the next several months including ways to stay cool, water activities, outdoor activities, parks, the Cannon Ballers, little league world series and other sports events as well as promoting Polar Express packages. Internally, the staff is working on developing benchmarks to track marketing progress, and these will be in the marketing reports in the coming months. They will compare 2024 to 2023 and will be developed based on a five-year period. These will include website benchmarks, group sales, trolleys, tourism support etc...

Tourism Development

Michalec reported on the countywide wayfinding stating that staff are getting closer to completing the proposal for NCDOT. Staff met with Ann from Rowan County and decided to do the funding all within the next fiscal year. The total price will stay the same funds are just being moved around with communities as needed. County staff will review the entire plan once each community has been completed within each municipality.

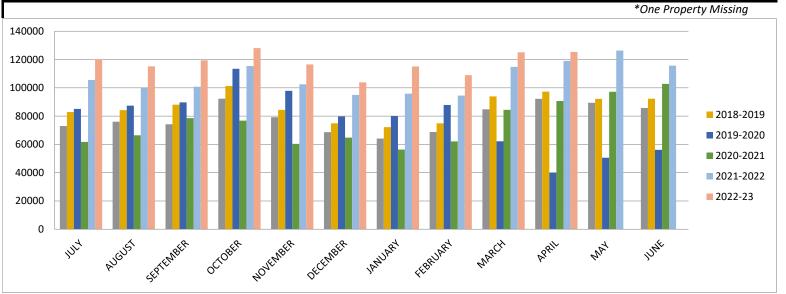

Michalec reported that for the RailWalk, the attorney is working on the property lines in the ally way and getting the TDA ownership of those properties. Staff will begin meeting with property owners and if everyone can get on board, staff will take that to the Historic Preservation Commission. If approved by the Commission, staff will set up a survey and work toward obtaining the property.

Meacham reported that over the summer staff will start looking at the development of an Agri-tourism adventure product. He thanked the Commissioners and the County staff for the zoning changes. Meacham said that this plan has offered local farms some key agritourism options for expansion. He updated the board on the agritourism and alcohol sales regulation and how these changes can potentially impact the various farms.

Meacham reported that effective July 1, 2023, Michalec will be overseeing the Gateway Building management. She has already started the process of renewing the leases and changing out the telephone system.
