

DISCOVER
SCHENECTADY
COUNTY • EST. 1661

ALL THINGS IN NATURE

HIGHLIGHTS

SCHENECTADY GREENMARKET

- Outdoors in front of City Hall/ Jay St. (May-October)
- Inside Proctors Atrium (November-April)
- Purchase Healthy Organic Nutritional Foods and Beverages
- Meet Artisans

MOUNTAIN RIDGE ADVENTURE

- Rope Courses
- Hiking

MAPLE SKI RIDGE

- Take a Lesson
- Great for Beginners and Novices

UPSTATE KAYAK RENTALS

- Paddle the Historic Mohawk River or Let the Current Move You
- Bring a Fishing Pole

ERIE CANAL BIKE TRAIL

- Stop at Historic Westinghouse Train Station
- Watch Lock 7 Move Boats along the Mohawk River

CENTRAL PARK ROSE GARDEN

- Relax Amongst the Roses, Fountains, and Statues
- Read a Book or Write

FISHING – MARIAVILLE LAKE

- Get bait

SCHENECTADY COUNTY FOREST PRESERVE

- Hunting (November 15 – December 15)
- Fishing, cross-country skiing, and snow-showing during winter months

PLOTTER KILL PRESERVE

- 632 acres of rugged hardwood and coniferous forest along the Plotter Kill, a scenic tributary to the Mohawk River
- Waterfalls, nature study, hiking

INDIAN KILL NATURE PRESERVE

- Diverse habitats: native hardwood forest, conifer plantations, and wetlands.
- Hiking, nature study, fishing, cross-country skiing, and snow-showing

CHRISTMAN BIRD AND WILDLIFE SANCTUARY

- Waterfall, hiking, picnics, and family fun

ANNUAL NATURE EVENTS TO HIGHLIGHT:

- Upper Union Street Strawberry Festival (June)
- Schenectady County Historical Society's CanalFest (July)
- Schenectady County's Fall Foliage Festival (October)
- Check our website for exact dates

WHERE TO EAT:

- Wolf Hollow Brewing Company – take in the scenery, enjoy a beer, and grab a bite from one of their partner food trucks
- Druthers Brewing Company – sit alongside the Mohawk River and during the warmer months, catch a free Harbor Jam concert during dinner
- Waters Edge Lighthouse – beautiful waterfront view of the Mohawk River with patio dining
- Grano - An urban oasis where local, fresh, and simple are the mantra, enjoy the robust taste of farm-to-table Italian cuisine
- Back Barn Brewing -Food Trucks On Site