CAUGHT IN THE ACT

BY CHRIS JAY

20x49 blogger

Items thrown by Mardi Gras krewe, collectively known as “throws,” are not created equal. Here are five of the most prized throws of Carnival season in Shreveport-Bossier – and where to catch them.

1. HOT DOGS

CAUGHT AT KREWE OF HIGHLAND PARADE, SUNDAY, MARCH 3 AT 2 P.M.

Several thousand grilled, foil-wrapped hot dogs are tossed each year by the Krewe of Bar-B-Que float during the Krewe of Highland Parade. Be on the lookout for a giant, rolling hot dog - and be prepared to chase it!

2. HARAMBEE MASKS

CAUGHT AT THE KREWE OF HARAMBEE MARTIN LUTHER KING JR. DAY MARDI GRAS PARADE MONDAY, JANUARY 21 AT 1 P.M.

In preparation for their annual parade, members of the Krewe of Harambee hand-craft a very small quantity of elaborate masks. Look for members of krewe royalty, who are most likely to be carrying the coveted masks.

3. AUTOGRAPHED ROYALTY BEADS

CAUGHT AT MAJOR PARADES AND FLOAT-LOADING PARTIES

Royalty beads, also known as “specials,” are custom-made medallions designed to reflect the theme of each float. Some royalty autograph the reverse side of each plaster medallion.

4. MOON PIES

CAUGHT AT ALL PARADES

Candy and other snacks are common throws, but these marshmallow-filled graham cracker cookies are the most prized treat of Mardi Gras.

5. CUPS, CUPS, AND MORE CUPS

CAUGHT AT ALL PARADES

Following any Mardi Gras parade, you'll see parade-goers heading home with hundreds of colorful cups. These cups, which krewe members order by the thousand, vary from one float to the next.

For more stories like this, visit www.20x49.com, the official destination blog of Shreveport-Bossier.
