Hello 2022, Let's Start Fresh!

This year, my hopes for visitors and locals of Shreveport-Bossier City, Louisiana consist of three things: brighter days, pleasant journeys, and a fresh start to entertainment and travel. Because our destination is located at the edge of the Ark-La-Tex tri-state area, we're able to reshape and redefine the way our destination is enjoyed.

We honor our outdoor excursions like Arkansas, take pride in our culture like Texas, and entice everyone with a spice that can only be found in Louisiana. Shreveport-Bossier is on new footing, and we're shaking up tourism in all the ways imaginable. Whether you're taking a day trip or you're just a quick flight away, new discoveries and old favorites are at every corner, including a slew of visitors' lesser-known keepsakes that can be found in this issue of the 2022 Official Visitor Guide to Shreveport-Bossier. All we ask in return is that you bring your Louisiana passions to Shreveport-Bossier to experience delectable cuisine, tranquil bayous, blended cultures, year-round events, unique stays, and more.

Moving forward with a fresh start means making our visitors feel right at home with good ol' Southern hospitality. So, when you're ready to un-pause life and press play in Shreveport-Bossier, we'll be right here waiting.

Safe Travels,
Stacy Brown, President
Shreveport-Bossier Convention and Tourist Bureau

Highland Area

Highland is Shreveport's most eccentric and diverse neighborhood where you'll find quirks at every corner, from historic homes repurposed for small businesses and the Krewe of Highland parade known for their unexpected throws. Parade-goers are as likely to catch a hot dog or a package of Spam as they are beads and trinkets. The historic portion of Highland is significant as it boasts almost 100 acres of beautiful Colonial Revival, Queen Anne, and bungalow/craftsman homes, some built as early as 1875.

Be sure to visit Marilynn's Place or Ki' Mexico, two popular Sunday brunch spots in Highland.

Whether you want to bar-hop in downtown Shreveport, take advantage of Bossier City's open-container area in the East Bank District, or find a neighborhood dive bar to sip with the locals, Shreveport-Bossier's bartenders are serving up good times and great drinks at every corner.

PARTYGOERS

If you're looking for a reason to dance or prefer energetic nightlife experiences, here are our top suggestions for partygoers. You can revel with the locals at Sand Bar, enjoy "meowmosas" at Strange Brew, or catch a drag show at Central Station Nightclub. Take an Uber or Lyft home, or keep the party going on the courtyard-style patio at Stray Cat in downtown Shreveport.

HAPPY HOUR HUNTERS & FOODIES

The top of Texas Street in downtown Shreveport is booming with culinary experts and unbeatable happy hour specials. Make a reservation at Abby Singer's Bistro, located inside the Robinson Film Center, to take on their award-winning gumbo prepared by Chef Tootie Morrison and indulge in their cocktail program. Keep the food and drink tour going and drop in at The Missing Link, and Parish Taceaux for more bar-hopping and foodie experiences.

BEER, WINE AND COCKTAIL AFICIONADOS

Beer buffs can discover a new brew at our acclaimed breweries: Flying Heart Brewing and Pub, Red River Brewpub, The Seventh Tap, and Great Raft Brewing. Pop the cork at more than four wine bars, including Vintage Wine Bar & Spirits, On Cloud Wine & Vineyard, We Olive Wine Bar, and an extensive wine selection at Lucky Palace, which is an unexpected, upscale and underground joint buried in a motel. If craft cocktails are your thing, take advantage of Fatty Arbuckles' vast bourbon program or if you want to chill out after a long day, grab a refreshing cocktail at The Bar Chord.

Eat Your Way Through Shreveport-Bossier's Food Scene

Our sister cities love to show off their Cajun and cowboy cuisine and everything in-between. Have an adventure through the area's restaurants, food trucks, culinary experiences, and more to discover your new favorite dish, dessert or drink. When you find it, share it with us by using #Eat318 in your social media posts.

Shreveport-Bossier's Most Iconic Foods

Shreveport-Bossier dishes up food staples and celebrated bites that are some of the most talked-about, essential dining experiences in Northwest Louisiana. However, a few meals stand out from the crowd that locals and visitors rave about. Be sure to include these iconic foods from the sister cities that no serious food lover should visit Shreveport-Bossier without tasting.

SHREVEPORT-STYLE STUFFED SHRIMP

Various restaurants in Shreveport-Bossier. We recommend:

- Eddie's Seafood and Soulfood Restaurant
1956 Hollywood Ave., Shreveport
- Orlandeaux's Café, 5301 S. Lakeshore Dr., Shreveport

Shreveport-style stuffed shrimp is a local delicacy that originated in the kitchen of the Freeman & Harris Café, a historic Black-owned restaurant that, at the time of its closing, was one of the oldest Black-owned restaurants in the U.S. These large, succulent shrimp are stuffed with fiery Creole dressing, deep-fried and served with a spicy tartar sauce. Try them at Eddie's Seafood and Soulfood Restaurant, which was named one of the "Best Soul Food Restaurants in the South" by Southern Living in October 2015. Shreveport-style stuffed shrimp are also available at a number of other eateries around town.

THE SHRIMP BUSTER AT HERBY-K'S

1833 Pierre Ave., Shreveport

Any list of Shreveport food icons should include The Shrimp Buster, a unique take on the fried shrimp po'boy offered at Herby-K's, a seafood joint that's been run by the same local family since 1936. Jumbo shrimp are pounded flat, deep-fried, and stacked on buttery French bread. Squeeze a lemon wedge over the shrimp and dunk it in the secret Shrimp Buster sauce to get the full experience.

DUCK ON SCALLION PANCAKES AT LUCKY PALACE*750 DiamondJacks Blvd., Bossier City*

Located in the lobby of Bossier Inn and Suites, Lucky Palace defies expectations at every turn. Louisiana food icon Chef John Besh is among the biggest fans of Lucky Palace, which offers one of the best wine programs in Louisiana as well as upscale, inspired Chinese delicacies such as the delicious duck on scallion pancakes, Thai green curry prawns and Cantonese-style crispy T-bone steaks.

ICEBOX PIE AT STRAWN'S EAT SHOP125 Kings Hwy., Shreveport*

Arguably the most acclaimed eatery in Shreveport, Strawn's Eat Shop has been featured in Southern Living, USA Today, Travel + Leisure and countless other publications – all because of their outstanding icebox pies. Try the strawberry pie, by far the most popular flavor, or a slice of velvety butterscotch or seasonal Ruston peach.

OVERSTUFFED BEIGNETS AT RALPH'S PLACE1173 Louisiana Ave., Shreveport*

There are beignets and then there's ben-YAYs at Ralph's Place. These iconic Cajun treats have elevated the Louisiana norm. You can choose hefty beignets filled with apple butter, almond butter, breakfast foods, or stick to the traditional crispy powdered delight. This weekday diner is a spin-off of Marilyn's Place, a popular brunch spot in Shreveport's historic Highland neighborhood, where the legacy of these beignets began.

PAPA'S SMOKED BRISKET AT REAL BBQ & MORE5863 Fairfield Ave., Shreveport*

There is brisket, and then there is pit master Harvey Clay's slow-smoked brisket at Real BBQ & More. Smoked for 14 hours in the Midland, Texas native's custom-built smoker, Clay's brisket is fork-tender and smoky with a perfect pink smoke ring. Real BBQ & More also serves Clay's house-made sausage, which is made using 100% brisket, as well as terrific ribs and sides. If you love talking barbecue, ask to see Mr. Clay, who enjoys debating the finer points of great 'cue with his customers.

THE MUFFY AT FERTITTA'S DELICATESSEN1124 Fairfield Ave., Shreveport*

Shreveport's oldest continually operated restaurant, Fertitta's Delicatessen first opened in 1927 as the first Italian grocery in the city. Now listed on the National Register of Historic Places, the mom-and-pop sandwich shop specializes in muffalettas. Their signature sandwich, "The Muffy," is a smaller, single-serving version of the famous New Orleans cold cut sandwich topped with olive mix, mustard and American cheese.

THE MONSTER CROC AT THE CHOCOLATE CROCODILE460 Boardwalk Blvd., Bossier City*

The Monster Croc candied apple starts with a large Granny Smith apple, which is dipped in homemade caramel, rolled in pecans and covered in additional layers of caramel, milk chocolate and white chocolate. The Chocolate Crocodile is a locally owned chocolate shop located at the Louisiana Boardwalk Outlets.
