

Drink like a Local at BACK ROAD WINERIES

Day 1

MORNING

START THE DAY AT KULA VINEYARDS & WINERY

Taste the wine sourced and bottled in Atascadero to set the bar. Appreciate the nuanced notes that make this wine region so complex. Relax, as you taste wine on the secluded patio of their tasting room or inside among their inviting atmosphere.

5990 Entrada Ave | Atascadero, California 93422
805-296-7765

AFTERNOON

SPEND THE AFTERNOON WITH BELLA LUNA WINERY

Whether you're walking through the vines or tasting through the barrels, enjoy the local wine that showcases the Templeton Gap AVA. Depending on the season, sit down with the winemaker during a "harvest lunch" or grab a bite with your flight of wine.

1850 Templeton Road | Templeton, CA 93465
805-434-5477

EVENING

FINISH THE EVENING WITH GUEST HOUSE

Refresh your palate by ending the day back in Atascadero with local cuisine. Pair your dinner with local wines you may have missed.

8783 El Camino Real | Atascadero, CA 93422
805-460-0193

Day 2

MORNING

START OFF WITH A DIFFERENT BREW; BACK PORCH BAKERY

Stroll downtown to Back Porch Bakery and enjoy locally roasted coffee matched with a freshly baked pastry or another item from the menu. Take in the local history of this bakery located within The Carlton hotel built in 1928.

6005 El Camino Real | Atascadero, CA 93422
805-461-5100

AFTERNOON

APPLES IN ATASCADERO, SAMPLE CIDER AT BRISTOLS CIDER HOUSE

With a variety of hard cider options from craft makers who source over 55 varieties of local apples, Bristols brought Traditional English-style hard cider straight to Atascadero. The owners, who grew up in the town of Bristol, England, are dedicated to making small-batch ciders on the Central Coast.

EVENING

DISCOVER THE CENTRAL COAST DISTILLERY

Wind down the evening with a boutique distillery experience. Sample local spirits and taste locally-foraged Central Coast ingredients. Also, you can support the honeybees with a flight of honey vodka in their tasting room nicknamed the "bee box."

5804 Traffic Way | Atascadero, CA 93422
805-901-6094

Find Your Farm, TOUR AND TASTE

Day 1

MORNING

START THE DAY WITH THE GIVING TREE FAMILY FARM

Bring the whole family to experience farm life with a goat milk soap workshop or get to know one of the eight alpacas. Reservations are needed before visiting the farm.

6135 Parkhill Rd | Santa Margarita, CA 93453
805-438-4989

AFTERNOON

HARMONY LAVENDER FARMS

Tour the lavender farm and explore this niche farm. Learn about local lavender as you relax and unwind.

7045 Sycamore Rd | Atascadero, CA 93422
805-423-6763

EVENING

LOVING FARM ANIMAL SANCTUARY

Finish the day with some love at the Loving Farm Animal Sanctuary. Just like the name says, this farm is all heart. Take a private tour and meet the farm family from Babydoll Sheep to "Jack Sparrow" their rooster.

6060 Vista Del Paso | Paso Robles, CA, 93446

Day 2

MORNING

BREAKFAST AT HUSH HARBOR

Enjoy where farm bounties meet the kitchen in Atascadero. This family-owned café produces fresh, amazing bread and offers breakfast on select days. Grab a loaf for the road to take with you to pair with farm bounty on your way through the countryside.

5735 El Camino Real | Atascadero, CA 93422
805-460-0541

AFTERNOON

GROVES ON 41

Cruise down the 41 and take a deep breath of countryside air. Learn how to slurp olive oil and expand your palate.

4455 Highway 41 East | Templeton, CA 93465
805-466-1542

EVENING

CHAPARRAL GARDENS

Sitting on 20 acres of Central Coast landscape, with 2 acres of organic farmland, Chaparral Garden creates Artisan Vinegar made from hand-picked fruits, herbs, and vegetables. Book an appointment to taste balsamic vinegar, fruit vinegar and specialty oil in their private tasting room.

805-703-0829
cgvinegar@gmail.com

Explore the Castle on the Coast

HEARST CASTLE

Option 1

MORNING

BRU COFFEEHOUSE

Enjoy a delicious drink, pastry and even a breakfast sandwich at Bru Coffeehouse before packing up the family for a road trip to Hearst Castle.

5760 El Camino Real | Atascadero, CA
805-464-5007

AFTERNOON

As you make your way up highway 46, take in the coastal scenery and be on the lookout for wildlife. You might even see zebras grazing! The Hearst Castle used to be home to many exotic species, some of which would graze around the property. Some animals, like zebras, remain out in fields near the 46.

EVENING

HEARST CASTLE EVENING TOUR

Be guided through historic Hearst Castle as docents in 1930s attire move through the castle for a throwback experience. Move through the castle as it is beautifully illuminated at night.

750 Hearst Castle Rd | San Simeon, CA 93452

Option 2

MORNING

Before you make your way to Hearst castle stop by Cricket's and grab a deli-style sandwich to-go. There are plenty of coastal spots to stop and eat lunch just off of the 46.

9700 El Camino Real #104 | Atascadero, CA 93422

AFTERNOON

Explore Hearst Castle's most opulent rooms when you take the Grand Rooms Tour. As you wander through the various rooms, imagine what it might have been like to be a guest of William Randolph Hearst, the man who built the estate one hundred years ago.

750 Hearst Castle Rd | San Simeon, CA 93452

EVENING

Before you leave San Simeon, watch a coastal sunset at the Piedras Blancas Rookery, the only easily accessible elephant seal rookery in the world!