1281	The relaxing atmosphere and scenery.	6/1/2018 12:31 PM
1282	Outdoor activities. Went surfing with friends in Morro Bay, hiked Montana de Oro, rode bikes around town. Best farmers market I've ever been to. Did a comedy open mic at Kreuzberg and spent a lot of time just loafing and reading there with my downtime. The house we stayed in was gorgeous and it was definitely a highlight of that PCH trip.	6/1/2018 12:31 PM

1304	Liked the city, visiting beaches	6/1/2018 12:23 PM
1305	Highway 46 beautiful wine road	6/1/2018 12:23 PM
1306	Just the coziness of it all, from our stay at our fave motel, the Adelaide Inn (best bang for your buck, in our opinion--great rooms in a great location for a reasonable price), to our dinner at what we consider the best restaurant in the world--McPhee's. Never a bad meal or a bad time. Then we visited our fave wineries--Denner, where we are members and treated like family, and others (Daou was a bit Disneyland-esque). SLO is like Napa 20 years ago, which is a good thing.	6/1/2018 12:23 PM

#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	New hotel in Pismo and all the traffic in that area.	6/24/2018 10:38 PM
2	Prices are high. Too many fast moving cars. Not enough local folks left.. Slot of globallu imported robot types who act self righteous. Socio+-economic Division causing hate crime mentality toward the poor people.. "All humans are equally valuable" (My quote)	6/24/2018 6:22 AM
3	I dislike the ever shrinking OHV area of the dunes.	6/23/2018 9:53 PM
4	Windy	6/23/2018 6:31 PM
5	no amusement parks	6/23/2018 6:21 PM

11	Too much traffic to/in Paso	6/23/2018 3:45 PM
12	It was hot lol	6/23/2018 3:34 PM
13	Its becoming L. A. To much construction, new roads, and over populated. Do not like out down town look anymore. To much overgrown RT owth for small community. Locals can't do anything without lines of visitors. It's a lot noisier here then if use to be. Construction is blocking our beautiful hills from being seen.	6/23/2018 2:49 PM
14	There are very few activities to participate in, outside of hiking. Most of downtown is shops and restaurants.	6/23/2018 2:21 PM
15	Prices. Freeway system.	6/23/2018 2:11 PM
16	Not culturally diverse, traffic is fine until all the tourists come.	6/23/2018 2:08 PM
17	Lots of rowdy people	6/23/2018 1:45 PM
18	Food not the best Every where you go..lots of burger menus, more great seafood needed	6/23/2018 1:33 PM
19	Sometimes it gets crowded, especially Pismo Beach and makes for a lot of traffic so that can be a bummer.	6/23/2018 1:24 PM
20	Parking on busy college days.	6/23/2018 1:02 PM
21	Cost of living rents are too much for what the average wage is.	6/23/2018 12:38 PM
22	Trash left on the beaches	6/23/2018 12:35 PM
23	Losing more riding areas and no real map of the extent of the new fencing. It made it difficult to navigate at times.	6/23/2018 12:31 PM
24	The culture and lack of diversity and tolerance	6/23/2018 12:26 PM
25	Cost of living very high	6/23/2018 11:33 AM
26	I had no disappointments with SLO CAL.	6/23/2018 11:17 AM
27	Nothing	6/23/2018 11:15 AM
28	I wish there were slightly more opportunities to creat experiences besides the beach and hiking	6/23/2018 11:13 AM
29	APCD and the group of red shirt people trying to shut down the dunes.	6/23/2018 10:52 AM

187	I looked into housing at one point because I considered moving there for law school. I currently attend Monterey college of law and our sister college San Luis Obispo college of law is in that area. I was hoping it would be more affordable to live in SLO, however it was surprisingly a little more affordable in Monterey.	6/21/2018 5:09 PM
188	Always have parking issues near where we are intending to visit. We usually end up in a parking garage a walk for many blocks. Being disabled, this is sometimes an issue.	6/21/2018 5:05 PM
189	I do not like how the town of SLO (and some of the other towns nearby like Grover Beach, and Avalia Beach) have changed into a more yuppy looking towns that have got cluttered with businesses and apartments built close together. SLO county has become extremely crowded over the years and have moved away from the country open space which was once part of its charm. With the rise of development, there is less space and it looks more touristy then it did about 10 years ago.	6/21/2018 4:58 PM

I have been coming there since I was a small child and now my kids are going over and adults. Taking away the dunes will be a detrimental financial mistake SLO County will make and when this happens it will be to late. 676	I find the country charm slowly disappearing from this town. There is less space and more people have moved into the area. There use to be more a country theme of this place. Now with new buildings in the last 10 years built, it is starting to look more yuppy. Many of the buildings are close together like in San Francisco. I personally like space and going to towns that are less crowded. It seems San Luis Obispo has grown with more residents as well as being a popular tourist spot. It use to be not that way. I would hate to see it a touristy town for only yuppies to enjoy. Even then, I never like those tourist trap stores that sell cheap novelties with the town's name on them sold at inflated prices. I hope this town does not ever forget its country roots and resists becoming a tourist trap.	6/12/2018 3:44 PM

SLO CAL DESTINATION SURVEY

1237	SOOOO much traffic now! Too many Orange County transplants trying to make SLO (which they presumably moved to because they loved it) into the communities they left (presumably because they didn't like it as much as SLO). Why move here, then try to make it what you left? Go back if you love it there so much, and let us have our countrified life.	6/1/2018 12:27 PM

SLO CAL DESTINATION SURVEY

67	More cross walks with lights downtown	6/22/2018 7:29 PM
68	Make the environment a high priority	6/22/2018 7:10 PM
69	Add more riding space at oceano dunes.	6/22/2018 6:56 PM
70	n/a	6/22/2018 6:36 PM
71	Stop developing the pier area with giant hotels that block the otherwise small town feel and charm of the area.	6/22/2018 6:16 PM
72	See above	6/22/2018 6:09 PM
73	Nothing to recommend	6/22/2018 6:02 PM
74	Help homelessness	6/22/2018 5:59 PM
75	Homeless population should be better taken care of.	6/22/2018 5:56 PM
76	Open up more dune access	6/22/2018 5:51 PM
77	Stop letting a small minority drive your agendas. If Oceano beach is closed we will not visit often and we and our camping group spend a lot of money in your county.	6/22/2018 5:30 PM
78	At this moment I'm afraid for my children to have the privilege to Offroad on Oceano Dunes recreational facility. This year they have closed many acres of Pismo dunes and made it more dangerous because they closed off the main highway to a small narrow bottleneck this must be changed	6/22/2018 5:28 PM
79	Find a way to increase the size of the park. Increasing the size will spread out everyone who uses the dunes which will decrease the accidents that happen.	6/22/2018 5:27 PM
80	Fair and impartial hearings to determine future uses of Oceano SVRA rather than biased opinions based on no Factual data	6/22/2018 5:26 PM

82	More parking	6/22/2018 5:24 PM
83	Help the homeless more	6/22/2018 4:56 PM
84	Better roads	6/22/2018 4:56 PM
85	Would have been a little better if stayed in a place by ourselves, stayed with daughter, landlords and/or apartment managers not accomodating.	6/22/2018 4:16 PM
86	Fix the roads	6/22/2018 3:45 PM
87	More parking	6/22/2018 3:42 PM
88	Better embrace historic elements and merge the local community and school community	6/22/2018 3:35 PM
89	Road maintenance	6/22/2018 2:55 PM
90	Resorts	6/22/2018 2:49 PM
91	More bike parts from SLO to beaches	6/22/2018 2:45 PM
92	1.Bring a first class aquarium to Morro Bay, Use the old power plant. 2.Build a three-tiered parking structure with the convention center on its roof in Morro Bay on the Embarcadero where the public parking lot is now. It would be a great place to work and play. This would bring in more revenue for the city and the county. This would alleviate parking stress in the city of Morro Bay. 3. Make the Embarcadero a one-way street with Slanted parking and widen the pedestrian space.	6/22/2018 2:17 PM
93	Free community shuttle from outlying parking	6/22/2018 1:55 PM
94	Less expensive housing	6/22/2018 1:49 PM
95	More activities that are cheap like water parks and a better zoo	6/22/2018 1:46 PM

336	Find a solution for better parking in downtown SLO. If there has to be a parking lot in a remote location, provide free, frequent trollycar or shuttle service to downtown. Find an appropriate way to deal with the homeless population situation. In Atascadero, near El Camino Rd and Highway 41/Morro Rd a lot of homeless linger around the stores and Galaxy Movie Theater and Sunken Gardens Park, while they await getting back to ECHO El Camino Homeless Shelter for their 5 pm dinner. They panhandle and ask for money and it makes some residents and tourist uncomfortable. Some that are high on drugs or alcohol say inappropriate things to the people they encounter on the streets.	6/20/2018 12:46 PM

1001	Don't screw it up...!	6/1/2018 3:21 PM
1002	Better prices for accommodations. You're going to have to find a balance so that you stop catering to rich people and stop catering to people who want everything to be the same no matter where they go (i.e. all the box stores, chain restaurants, etc) I also think if you don't address the very real rental crisis in SLO, which is making homelessness worse, there is no point supporting you. Greedy damned property owners.	6/1/2018 3:20 PM

1080	Eliminate petroplastic. Tax waste. Have certain days when people can ride their horses into town (s) and cars are kept out. That would be a big tourist attraction! Demonstrate some real forward thinking by removing lawns from government buildings and replace with a mix of drought tolerant landscaping and grey water fed fruit trees. Design the built environment to capture rainwater and let it soak in, recharging groundwater... Create camps for houseless people using tiny cabins and other micro shelters, and place in open space areas around the highway on and off ramps, near neglected areas, at the sewage treatment plant, etc- and have projects for them to work on (improving landscape and more) and have one of them employed as the host of each camp, to manage for health and safety. Basically, SLO can become a shining light of caring for v the Earth and caring for the people, by using natural principles, including enlightened self-interest, to better its physical and social landscape.	6/1/2018 1:12 PM

#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	Dunno? After 25 years of frequent visits to Pismo and Shell beaches, we now prefer Morro Bay even though the weather is not as nice. So anyway, we don't go nearly as often as we used to, preferring the Santa Cruz - Monterey area now.	6/24/2018 10:38 PM
2	Pay me.	6/24/2018 6:22 AM
3	Stop being so liberal!	6/23/2018 9:53 PM

1077	I go on a regular basis so not much, I love it so. I think the more caring that the tourism industry is towards local residents and stewardship the better for everyone. There is definitely a growing divide that the tourism industry and leaders is in a good position to do something about. An idea I have been developing is to create a county wide tourism sustainability plan that leadership and stakeholders are a part of to both increase tourism, sustain it, and maintain county infrastructure all at the same time. So locals don't see tourism as a negative. It is key for future positive growth and development.	6/1/2018 12:57 PM
1078	Golf packages - play & stay.	6/1/2018 12:57 PM

565	Avila is somewhat tucked away. They have the point where you can see seals on the pier. Cayucos used to be a place I would surf, so it brought back memories. Edna for the wine of course, plus it is a nice back road to Pismo. Morro Bay because of the old quarry. Pismo because of the beach and the energy. SLO because that is where I spent 6 years of my life and I absolutely love everything about SLO.	6/12/2018 4:04 PM

41	The size of the dunes	6/23/2018 12:33 AM
42	Increasing prices. In Pismo Beach/Oceano area, the vehicles in the dunes and on the beach ruin the coast. The Melodrama is a redeeming feature there though.	6/23/2018 12:26 AM
43	Sometimes places can be crowded. There's always a lot of construction too. For me the worst part is the fact that the food isn't very diverse. I would love it if some dim sum or Korean bbq places opened up down here.	6/23/2018 12:21 AM
44	Roads, touristy, type shops, parking	6/23/2018 12:20 AM
45	We no longer go to Jocko's because they are too unorganized and not customer friendly. We have in the last few years gone to McClintock's and now we will go to AJ Spurs from now on.	6/22/2018 11:14 PM

SLO CAL DESTINATION SURVEY

144	AG=nice, I wouldn't mind living there. Atas=less kindness shown, would only consider living on acreage there and the heat in Summer is too much! Avila=Again, too expensive for me to live there. I have attended 2 concerts there and the site was wonderful & weather is nice, like Cayucos. Cambria=Beautiful, but I found the people to be rude and inconsiderate on more than one occasion. Cayucos=Amazing-my income is too low to live there, but I would in a second, if I could! GB=Okay-There seem to be a lot of people on the streets at all times of year. Weather is pretty decent though. LO&BP=Nice weather, again people seem unfriendly and I wouldn't want to live there. MB=Well I've chosen to live hear. Cost of living is a bit lower than Cambria and Cayucos. Some people are friendly. Our weather is cool and moist. Nip=It is okay. Weather is quite a bit warmer than I'm used to. I believe cost of living isn't too bad there. Oceano=It feels trashy and that druggies are walking around all over the place. PR=nice, but crazy hot in summer. When the yearly fair goes on there is usually no parking for miles around. Making the parking lot multi level would help a lot. PB&SB=Shell Beach is small and quaint, but expensive. Pismo is good, but has a huge influx of travelers. Pozo=I attended a couple of concerts there years ago and they were fun. I was shocked at how people left their trash all over the ground. I've never been there besides those two concert venues. SLO=I like SLO because it has everything except drive throughs. The weather is very unpredictable there; sometimes hot, sometimes extremely windy, and sometimes just right. Due to Cal Poly, house prices are outrageous! SS=I've only been there a few times; visiting Hearst Castle, trying a restaurant and of course to see the Elephant Seals. I don't think I will have reason to visit again. And finally, Templeton=The people were friendly, it is close enough to SLO or Paso for major shopping but it also has very cold winters and extremely hot summers. I imagine that it would be nice for a young family to live there, if they had A/C and a pool. Again, having acreage would be vital for me to consider living there.	6/21/2018 5:51 PM

10	Great place to live, would like to live in San Luis Obispo the city but way too expensive still in SLO county though which is nice. More affordable living in San Luis Obispo would be pretty cool then potentially would like to buy a house there.	6/23/2018 1:35 PM
11	Culinary ethnic diversity is poor in SLO. Specialty food markets are non-existent.	6/23/2018 1:27 PM
12	We love camping and riding at Oceano. The closeness to shopping means we are able to come down (8hrs) and grocery shop once we are there. We have been able to order custom cakes, enjoy many of the restaurants and bars and the local wineries and breweries and then return to our trailer. Oceano is hands down our favorite family camping spot. It has something for all ages and is close enough to town for us to be able to enjoy the shopping and other activities.	6/23/2018 12:47 PM

SLO CAL DESTINATION SURVEY

21	Well to start with.. after listing all those places asking what brings us to SLO CAL, you never mentioned Oceano Dunes SVRA??? Do you realize how much revenue US Dunes bring to your area? We visit 2 to 3 times a year and stay 5-10 days. My husband and I spend $500 and as much as $2000 per trip with purchasing and dining in 5 Cities. Just in our group there can be as many as 32 families. It would be nice to see these places and people recognized in your survey as places that BRING people and dollars to your County. Oceano Dunes SVRA Friends of Oceano Dunes Pismo Dune Riders Yo Banana Boys The Jerk Pirates Luv to Camp Off Road Rental Stores Just so you are aware, we have been coming for 22 years in a row, and as much as we have learned to love doing many things around the area.... the Dunes are the only reason we COME. If the Dunes are closed because of the few Red Shirts on Nipomo Mesa! Our family and group (and many others) will not be returning. We come to camp, ride and enjoy our family & friends in the sands of Oceano Dunes SVRA. ☐☐☐☐	6/23/2018 12:20 AM

26	great!	6/22/2018 10:09 PM
27	Visiting SLO CAL is to shop and to vacation at the coast, resting and enjoying the sounds of nature. Camping along the coast is our bag.	6/22/2018 9:34 PM
28	Please fight to keep Oceano Dunes SVRA open or so many people won't ever be back to this wonderful area.	6/22/2018 8:38 PM
29	The only thing SLO has to offer me as a California native is the Oceano dune riding area. I can get multiple "CA coast" experience's in much better areas like Monterrey, Fort Bragg/Mendocino, San Francisco, etc. The only reason I come to SLO is for the dunes and that is becoming less often. With the lack of riding area and it getting harder and harder to get camping passes we find ourselves going to Oregon more often.	6/22/2018 8:01 PM
30	Please keep Oceano dunes open, and expand the rideable area.	6/22/2018 7:06 PM

32	Oceano/Pismo recreational Offroad Dunes is one of the most valuable assets we have in Slo County. There are false accusations that are directly leading to closures and these closures have already taken effect in the last couple months. The closures have greatly diminished the flexibility in the park and they need to be reversed or changed. Save Oceano Dunes. Thank you	6/22/2018 5:44 PM
33	Please consider the effects on your county if you close or limit the size of one of the few places ATV riding is allowed on the California coast.	6/22/2018 5:43 PM

40	Better parking in downtown Paso really needed. Public restrooms are too few and not maintained during a busy day enough. More car rental agencies needed. CAmp grounds are beautiful and clean. Hearst Castle is a bucket list item, and the whole operations, is beyond first class. The tiny San Simeon post office area and Sebastian Store are.gems of the central coast. Hearst wlnes and ranch, rich in culture, and so interesting. The slo county cultir8and history, leave me wanting more and more of it!	6/22/2018 12:36 PM

64	I haven't noticed any late night/24 hours stores, would be nice to have more often	6/21/2018 5:58 PM
65	Being a long time resident of SLO county, I have noticed more and more traffic in the area. I really tend to avoid the downtown SLO area due to crowding and having to pay to park.	6/21/2018 5:44 PM
66	This survey made me want wish I was in any of the areas I mentioned right now!	6/21/2018 5:33 PM
67	Downtown sidewalks and streets could be cleaner. More pedestrian crosswalks needed. Walking tour signage would be fun as well as signs pointing to other destinations, similar to the vineyard sign off 227 in Edna.	6/21/2018 5:27 PM
68	Some of the questions weren't relevant to those of us that live here. And parking is abysmal and getting worse everyday	6/21/2018 5:24 PM
69	I hope to retire in SLO, as it is such a nice community!	6/21/2018 5:03 PM

SLO CAL DESTINATION SURVEY

75	overall this is a beautiful area, I love walking on all the Beaches and mostly going to the places that the locals go to. I don't like it getting too commercial with some of the newer expensive restaurants, I think Pete's at the Hartford Pier was a fun place too bad it had to go. I like Pismo Beach but not the new Hotel it ruins the ambiance it sticks out like a sore Thumb. After doing this survey I see some new places that I can check out, I wish I knew about these places while I was there, I didn't see them listed in the travel guides. I love SLO it's the happiest place.	6/21/2018 4:40 PM
76	Have lived from Arroyo Grande to Paso Robles since 1976. Have moved away and always came back. It is truly the best place in California.	6/21/2018 4:14 PM
77	Make the dunes car free or just for car camping. No off roading on the beach. It's destroying the beach and the air quality	6/21/2018 4:09 PM

89	We have gone to Oceano dunes multiple times a year, every year for over 30 years, literally the only reason to visit that area is for the dunes.	6/21/2018 3:14 AM
90	There are so many events that occur that we know of only having lived here a few years. We don't read a newspaper anymore, nor do we listen to local radio. Besides the news we generally don't watch local TV broadcasts. With 21st Century mediums of entertainment and information, I am sure many others fall in the same boat. There HAS to be a way to advertise the events occurring better for both the traveler and the folks who live here	6/21/2018 1:54 AM

108	I love SLO CAL. The more local it remains (with less corporate business influence), the stronger it's value. Cal Poly and it's local senior projects keep this town inventive and warm. The less corporations/the more local small businesses the better!	6/20/2018 3:52 PM
109	The place is awesome don't screw it up....	6/20/2018 3:46 PM
110	I have been following the dune closures and i'm saddened by it. The arguments for closure are thin, unsubstantiated, and championed by a wealthy few. The voices of the THOUSANDS who use the dunes are not heard. I see their input requested, input given, and input disregarded. The dunes are a unique tourism draw to SLO CAL. Close them and i fear the loss of revenue will be devastating and the impact on surrounding communities will be catastrophic. The dunes Should be embraced, championed, and enjoyed WITHOUT closures.	6/20/2018 2:23 PM
111	Post events more often	6/20/2018 2:11 PM
112	I have read about the Oceano Specific Plan. The county should get the improvements started. They should also incorporate Pier Ave as part of the improvements. Like me, I think most people visit SLO County for the beach so having a good appearance entering should be key.	6/20/2018 1:48 PM

123	Stop taking riding area away in the OHV park.	6/20/2018 11:17 AM
124	Interesting that when you listed outdoor activities the dunes weren't mentioned. Is it because it's a state park, not county? But then again many of those activities aren't county owned. If the intent is to ignore the dunes then you're not getting a clear picture as to why a segment of visitors choose SLO county.	6/20/2018 11:12 AM
125	Keep the Dunes open and accessible to the Off Road Vehicle Community, a huge part of your tourist base! Stop development of in-town areas creating congestion, reducing parking, and obstructing views!	6/20/2018 11:02 AM

129	Driving along we found the road signs were scarce and very poor. There seems to be little signage relating to town names or where the roads connect to further along. In England we are given the road number and the town it takes you to. When driving further south from Pismo to San Diego we struggled to find places to pull off the road for a short break to allow the driver a rest and to stretch our legs a little.	6/20/2018 4:23 AM
130	glad to help	6/20/2018 2:44 AM
131	It just seems that sums Obispo itself and the area is more geared toward college students and people that are wealthy kind of makes it harder to enjoy your hometown being a San Luis Obispo native	6/20/2018 2:26 AM
132	Better public transportation!!	6/20/2018 2:15 AM
133	Overall I enjoyed my time in SLO CAL.	6/20/2018 1:48 AM
134	Thank you for your time. I hope locals will still matter somewhat, but, SLO seems doomed and lost to the progressive movement. Miss the old Avila Beavh. Love Living in Village of AG since 76, best place to raise child. Downtown SLO is history, as in gone. Only chains can afford to rent there. Village of AG only allows mom and pop stores...so much more charm and draw! Love Bob Jones and Avila Barn, rest of it sucks now, but you can still stand on the beach, face south and the view and beauty is the same! I'm rounding third base, so I'll probably die here, too. If younger, I would leave my beloved SLO roots.	6/20/2018 1:30 AM
135	I love it here! Planning on moving to Paso in the next 5 years.	6/20/2018 1:28 AM

138	Do not brag so often that this is the greatest place on earth, it's not. It's nice, it lacks many things but overall it's a great place to live and visit. Just tone it down locals how awesome SLO is and be humble.	6/20/2018 12:52 AM

165	For me the draw of the region is its natural beauty & its climate, combined with points of historical/educational interest. If I weren't so averse to crowds, the festivals might be a draw for me. I'm into agricultural history and heirloom fruits/produce. I also enjoy music. I have yet to go to Avila or Sycamore due to cost, but if there were a SLO hot springs destination as affordable as Harbin Hot Springs used to be, I'd be a frequent visitor. I enjoy cycling and if there were even better infrastructure for it, I think I'd bring my recumbent bike up on a visit.	6/13/2018 7:36 PM

203	it's a beautiful area and many want to keep it a secret and minimize the crowds. but i feel that for those of us that do live here, there needs to be more cultural options of things such as shows, art exhibits, concerts, etc... we have to travel to really enjoy these types of things and it takes us away from our great community instead of drawing more people to it. you can probably do our entire county in less than a week b/c other than the wineries, most everything else can be seen relatively quickly.	6/12/2018 3:44 PM

210	I wish SLO County could come up with an attraction for the whole family, that doesn't cost too much, is educational and easily accessible. A new aquarium in Morro Bay would be a very good start, in the old Power Plant intake building. If they build it where they propose, it'll be a joke.	6/12/2018 3:30 PM

230	Many of the parking meters still require coins for parking - they should all be by app at this point.	6/11/2018 9:29 PM
231	My wife is disabled and there is a huge shortage of disabled parking in both Paso and SLO making access very challenging. Many restaurants and most public bathrooms do not offer adequate disabled facilities, many restarants have seating she can't possibly safely use, education on disabled access would go a long way to making visiting a much better experience. We are moving to the area.	6/11/2018 9:16 PM

244	Late night food is limited. It would be great if there was a lot for all food trucks to go to like at down town farmers market but for food trucks. Somewhere not downtown but easy to get to with parking. Price affects a lot of my decisions of where I stay and what I do.	6/8/2018 11:23 PM

SLO CAL DESTINATION SURVEY

245	I've lived in SLO for 10 months as a nanny and was dependant on friends or public transport to go downtown from Laguna Lake, where I used to live. I sometimes found it hard to not get lost even though I always had a map with me and friendly, helping people around me. Being a part of this great city and gaining experience of the surrounding was the best time of my life so far! It is my biggest wish to go back there - I am from Austria.	6/8/2018 6:49 PM

255	We LOVE SLO!	6/6/2018 7:53 PM
256	Maybe encourage more collaboration between events/organizations above & below the grade. Seems most events are focused on either south county, SLO, north county, or the beach. Not much county-wide except the mid-state fair.	6/6/2018 6:16 PM
257	Visit SLO CAL does a great job of marketing the region for tourism, although it would be great to add emphasis on improving quality of food, service, and experience and not just marketing it.	6/5/2018 7:50 PM
258	wish we'd have known about the local tours before we came	6/5/2018 5:59 PM
259	It's always a treat to stay in the area. The one thing I didn't notice in the survey was any information regarding churches. Many of us who stay for extended periods would appreciate more information on Houses of Worship.	6/5/2018 1:01 AM
260	We love it and hope to be back soon.	6/4/2018 8:00 PM

277	Would love to visit more often.	6/2/2018 2:07 PM
278	We thoroughly enjoy this area. We moved from Sonoma County and this area reminds us of Sonoma County without the traffic. It is also not overpopulated.	6/2/2018 11:32 AM
279	The homeless population in San Luis Obispo and surrounding communities is really getting out of hand and is causing SLO to be seen as run down and scuzzy. I don;t like to go downtown for this reason, as well as poor parking and the smell of urine.	6/2/2018 11:18 AM
280	I usually attend only the attractions that I enjoy therefore I don't have negative feelings about the experience. Maybe, too hot, too windy but otherwise thoroughly enjoy SLO. I do wish the trip was not so long but fortunately the scenery is beautiful.	6/2/2018 10:51 AM
281	Survey way too long	6/2/2018 10:38 AM
282	none	6/2/2018 9:50 AM
283	We come here often and usually have a good time	6/2/2018 7:41 AM
284	Overall I think SLO County is awesome, and I particularly like San Luis Obispo. I do find the homelessness is getting a bit worse there lately, and the cost of hotels is not in line with the quality, especially at times like graduation. The gas prices are also too high. Hiwever, the outdoor activities and restaurants and bars are great. The increase in craft beer places is also a positive change. It would be even better if more places were dog-friendly, especially the hiking trails.	6/2/2018 3:44 AM
285	Your survey is too long!	6/2/2018 1:18 AM
286	Fresh Seafood at Avila Beach, Nice Farmers Market, good size outlet mall. Small town feeling.	6/2/2018 12:45 AM
287	I really visited to see my Cal Poly son (who ended up being gone..) but if the area wasn't so nice, I would might not visit as quickly either. I would want to come back to the area even once m son isn't there.	6/2/2018 12:33 AM
288	The options for 'who did you travel with on most recent visit' is lacking. There were options for couples, groups of friends, solo... but not for a friend/companion. I had to chose something that did not fit in order to progress! A simple "other" option would be an easy remedy.	6/2/2018 12:31 AM
289	Thank you for the survey.	6/1/2018 10:40 PM
290	A lovely area	6/1/2018 10:12 PM
291	The area is very special to me, and I'm sorry I don't get to visit as often as I once did -- it's largely a matter of cost. Though still less expensive than the Bay Area or Southern California, it's been "discovered," in large part due to Sunset's "Savor the Central Coast" (a couple of which I attended and enjoyed) and no longer feels like my secret gem. I can't drive down there on the spur of the moment and find a great little place to stay like I used to -- I have to plan everything well in advance, and it takes more searching to find a place I can afford that has local character. I still love the area, but it's just not as easy to find that low-key atmosphere.	6/1/2018 10:09 PM
292	Beautiful part of the country!	6/1/2018 10:08 PM
293	The loss of locally owned business (other than restaurants and bars) in downtown SLO is disappointing. Also, the downtown has gotten dirty and overrun by homeless and panhandlers.	6/1/2018 9:48 PM
294	We have not been disappointed in our visits to SLO County overall.	6/1/2018 9:47 PM

297	No, I thought my comments were adequate	6/1/2018 8:48 PM
298	You need more campgrounds, better low cost food options, better lower cost hotel options, and more parking and lower costs for parking (free would reasonable). You are very discriminatory against people who are impoverished.	6/1/2018 8:40 PM

307	SLO has a great opportunity to become a true destination, but there is so much to do to gain ground and make it desirable to visit. It is not convenient and there is not a strong landmark or icon to draw tourist attention.	6/1/2018 6:43 PM

315	I enjoy visiting SLO and have thought about moving there ever since my adult daughter got a job with Caltrans in SLO, but have found the available housing disappointing and limited, and the lack of direct flights into the regional airport a dealbreaker. It's an 8-9 hour train ride from San Diego to SLO, and 6-8 hours by car. Not so easy to visit. Would definitely visit more if direct flight was available.	6/1/2018 4:22 PM
316	I dream of retiring to San Francisco and am trying to talk my spouse into it.	6/1/2018 4:13 PM

319	Less homeless would help.	6/1/2018 4:05 PM
320	Have always enjoyed going to the central coast	6/1/2018 3:49 PM
321	I moved here for beauty, peace, quiet, and less crowds. Instead you keep adding cookie-cutter shopping malls, chain restaurants, ugly generic boxy buildings that are anywhere-suburbia-USA that caters to the unimaginative people. Sycamore Hot springs used to be a great place, now it is just another over-priced spa for people with lots of discretionary income. Pismo used to be fun and funky--now it looks like any over-developed place with ugly buildings. SLO used to be fun and funky--now it is ersatz hipster. The beach towns are all becoming inter-changeable instead of having local character. The greed of land owners here is nearly criminal--non-permitted units, over-priced rentals, the trend of turning granny units into airbnb rentals, the lack of fairness to renters. It is a joke to call this the "happiest place". If you're relying primarily on a tourist economy, you should be taking steps to make sure that the people who serve in it have a living wage and can afford rent. I'm appalled by what has been happening here, in the last 10 years especially, as greedy Wall St firms, speculators, and developers drive prices into the stratosphere, making it impossible to buy a home, unless you want a small badly made condo. I love the area, but everything I loved is being developed to death. Ok...can I win the camera now? I sure as hell can't afford to buy it on my part-time community college salary!	6/1/2018 3:43 PM
322	Have loved SLO for 50 years, and it keeps getting better!	6/1/2018 3:39 PM

334	As a resident, I am concerned that once the downtown hotels in progress are finished, parking will become even more difficult (where are all the employees, staff, etc., going to park — there will probably be limited parking for hotel guests only)...sometimes the parking lots are full now in the middle of the day....and they are not monitored! Frequent car break ins and transients hanging out in the garages make me a little insecure even when I can find a space. Also, MANY car break ins at trail heads!!!! The most unique towns retain the "local" ie. you should not be the Central coast that is "just a day drive from LA for the tourists "and then tourists' still feel one is still in So Cal. You need more gardens, botanical sites.	6/1/2018 2:16 PM

341	I moved the this county in 1977 and don't have any plans to leave. I've watched this area grow and grow. It's disappointing to see the downtown area become yuppie-like and huge buildings being built. I rarely go downtown since it's hard to get around and find a place to park. The traffic has become so bad on the freeway and around town and the cost of living makes it hard to find a decent place to live and to recruit people to move here to work. But I guess that's considered progress.	6/1/2018 2:08 PM

351	I love that the air and water is clean. I love that in the off season it is not crowded. Being a traveler that cares about the areas I go to all over the world and especially in SLO County and having worked in this field for tourism it would have been effective if you asked questions about "would you like to have more info. about stewardship activities and how you can contribute to preserving history and the environment when you visit?". There are over 50 non-profit organizations that help preserve the beauty of SLO CAL that would welcome donations by visitors that care. Perhaps in the future you might look into this as trends show this is a growing population of visitors that want to make a difference when they are visiting areas. Overall nice work! Great survey.	6/1/2018 1:17 PM
