1 Molden

Starting point	Mollandsmarki (Krossen car park)
Total walking time	3 hours total
Km	8 total
Ascent	500 – 1116 masl
Season	May – October

Drive RV55 to Mollandsmarki. The trailhead and parking is situated on the Mollandsmarki road, just where it levels out after rising steeply from the RV55 junction. The trail starts 20 m up the road with a short uphill, just past the cattle grid. The trail is marked in red.

The trail is both on gravel roads and natural trail. Turning off the first leg on gravel, the trail gets steeper, until it levels out at Svarthiller, a good place for a break. The path now turns ninety degrees and winds its way past steep crags. After the steep crags, the trail levels out, and the remaining piece of trail is fairly easy to the cairn on the summit of Molden.

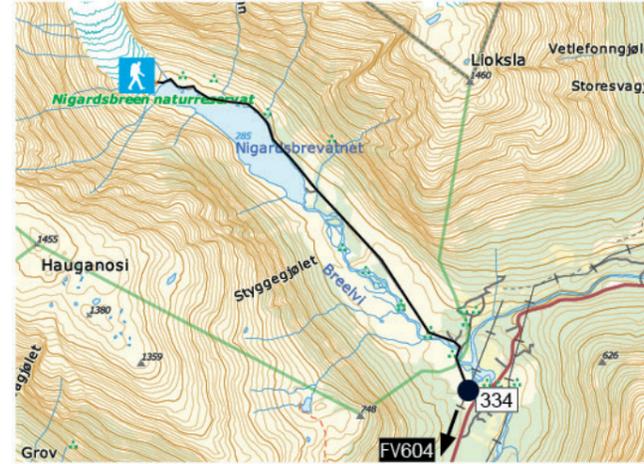

2 Nigardsbreen

Starting point	Breheimsenteret, Jostedal
Total walking time	3 hours total
Km	5 total
Ascent	253 – 316 masl
Season	May–September

To reach the Nigardsbreen Glacier, drive FV604 to Jostedal. Follow signs to Breheimsenteret. Breheimsenteret is both a museum, an information centre and the first trailhead. Glacier hikes can be booked at the Breheimsenteret. If you wish to park at the Breheimsenteret, you follow a footpath through interesting moraine landscape. The path from the parking lot by the lake to the glacier is approx. 1 km estimated walking time 30–45 min to the glacier. The path crosses rocks and rivers, but offers good steps and bridges. From the Breheimsenteret, it is also possible to drive for approx. 3,5 km (toll road) and park by the lake Nigardsbrevatnet. From there, follow a footpath on the right side of the lake to the glacier, or you can go by boat (needs to be booked in advance at the Breheimsenteret).

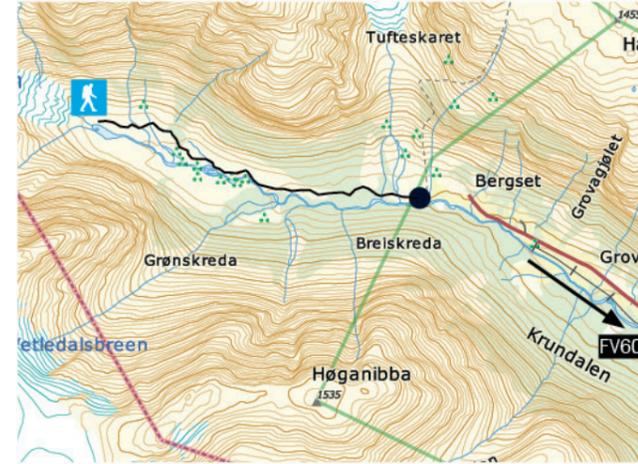

3 Bergsetbreen

Starting point	Carpark at Bergset
Total walking time	3 hours total
Km	7 total
Ascent	400 – 460 masl
Season	May – October

Drive FV604 to Jostedal, and turn towards Krundal. The starting point for this walk is the car park at Bergseth, at the end of the road in Krundalen. The route is well suited for families with small children. From the car park, the route follows an old farm road for a short while, and then becomes a very good and well-marked path along the level Bergset valley. The path crosses several small rivers, streams and boggy ground, but most of the time there are small bridges and wooden logs to keep your feet dry. Finally, the path turns into gravel and rock, but remains clear and easy to follow.

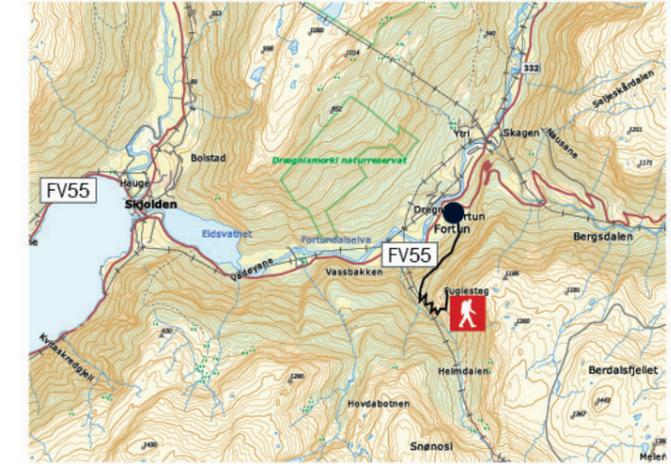

4 Fuglesteg

Starting point	Fortun
Total walking time	3 hours total
Km	5 total
Ascent	60 – 630 masl
Season	May – October

Drive FV55, pass Skjolden and towards Fortun. There is a small parking lot right by the shop in Fortun. The trail head is a gate to your right, situated a 500 m walk along the FV55 (towards Sognefjellet and Lom) from the shop. An old farm road takes you up to The tractor road takes Vetleåsen. From there the road veers left, and you start on the steep path towards Fuglesteg.

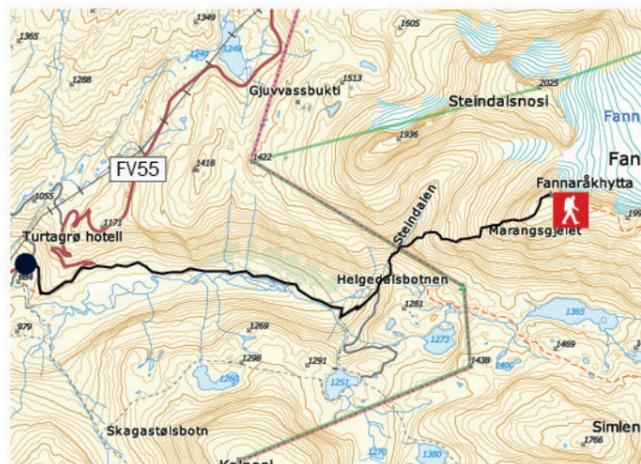

5 Fanaråken

Starting point	2 bend from Turtagrø Hotel direction Lom (fv55)
Total walking time	6–7 hours
Km	15 total
Ascent	900 – 2068 masl
Season	May – October

Drive FV55 to Turtagrø Hotel at Sognefjellet Mountain. The hike follows the main road from Turtagrø as far as the second bend and then goes by a road up Helgedalen. High up in Helgedalen you pass the intake to a tunnel feeding water to the Fortun hydro-electric power station. The trail then swings steeply up to the Keiserpasset – Skogadalsbøen road fork. From here a good and visible path twists and turns up to Fanaråken.

6 Mørkridsdalen

Starting point	Hyrnavollen, Mørkridsdalen
Total walking time	5 hours
Km	7 (10 km)
Ascent	100 – 500 m (900 masl)
Season	May – October

Drive FV55 to Skjolden and then FV333 toward Mørkrid. Park at Hyrnavollen, 5 km from Skjolden. The path follows the river up to the remarkable Tjørnahelet. Keep to the right of the first lake and then to the left. After a steep, but fairly short climb the path runs through a park like landscape until Dulsete (summer farm) comes into view. From there it is fairly level going to Dalen, which is a wide river plain between the high mountains with the summer farm at the end. For many the walk will end here, but motivated and fit hikers can also attempt the climb up to Austrå after crossing the river on a bridge beyond Dalen.

7 Feigumfossen

Starting point	Car park by road 331 (Ornes – Skjolden)
Total walking time	1 hour
Km	4 total
Ascent	0 – 150 masl
Season	May – October

One of Norway's highest waterfalls, Feigumfossen, drops 218 metres. Take the ferry from Solvorn to Ornes, or drive FV55 pass Skjolden towards Ornes. There is a marked path up to the viewpoint below the waterfall. The path starts from the main road to Ornes about 300 m past the car park. The end of the path tends to be rocky, but is well marked and easy to walk. It takes about half an hour to walk up from the road to the viewpoint, 150 m above sea level.

8 Austerdalsbreen

Starting point	Tungestølen
Total walking time	3 hours total
Km	12 total
Ascent	250 – 420 masl
Season	May – October

Drive RV55 to Hafslø and then FV337 to Veitastrond. The starting point for the walk is Tungestølen, deep in the Veitastrond Valley. The path begins just over the bridge and is well marked and easy to find. It continues along the west side of the Austerdal river, right up to the glacier. It is mostly level, with occasional short, sharp climbs. Although it might be tempting to walk close to the glacier, be sure to keep your distance! Glaciers are unpredictable and potentially very dangerous.
