

5 Giant Trolls for you to Discover

Rhode Island's Thomas Dambo Troll Trail is now complete with five of these giant, friendly sculptures waiting to meet you.

Mrs. Skipper

Standing by the East Providence bridge, Mrs. Skipper greets visitors who arrive on foot or by boat.

1 Kettle Point Ave, E. Providence, RI 02914

Iver Mudslider

Tucked away in Ryan Park you'll find Iver Mudslider high atop a little hill.

70 Lafayette Rd, North Kingstown 02852

Erik Rock

Ninigret Park is home to two trolls, the first is Erik Rock. Park by the Observatory and walk through the moon gate to greet him.

5 Park Ln, Charlestown, RI 02813

Greta Granit

Follow the clues from Erik to reach Greta, just a short walk away, also in Ninigret Park.

5 Park Ln, Charlestown, RI 02813

Young Boulder

Young Boulder is tucked away in the sprawling Arcadia Management Area. The easiest way to find him is to plug the following coordinates into your phone's GPS: 41.55920,-71.68773.

DAMBO

Thomas Dambo Trolls

Thomas Dambo is the world's leading recycle artist. His art is in more than 20 countries on 5 continents, including the USA, China, Brazil, Australia, GB, Germany, France, South Korea, Chile, and Puerto Rico. There are 125 Thomas Dambo trolls in the world, and 44 of those are in the USA.

The trolls are not only pieces of art but help spread Dambo's message to be good stewards of our planet by reusing and recycling what we can to cut down waste. Trash is treasure to Dambo and his art strives to share that philosophy with the world.
