South Padre Island to Host “Make Music South Padre Island” on June 21

SOUTH PADRE ISLAND, Texas, June 16, 2025 – With the summer solstice as its soundtrack, South Padre Island invites residents and visitors to join Make Music South Padre Island, a community-driven celebration of music taking place across various island venues and locations on Saturday, June 21st.

Part of the global Make Music Day—an annual festival held in more than 1,000 cities across 120 countries—this celebration turns the entire island into an open-air stage, showcasing local musicians, venues, and spontaneous street performances.

What to Expect:

- Free live music performances across diverse outdoor locations, highlighting the Island’s vibrant local music scene.
- Inclusive programming welcoming music-makers of all ages, skill levels, and genres—from amateur buskers to seasoned bands.
- Outdoor pop-ups in accessible, scenic spots—enjoy sounds along the beachfront promenades, casual sidewalk serenades, and family-friendly park performances.

“Make Music South Padre Island brings our community together in song and celebration under the summer sun,” says Blake Henry, Visit South Padre Island Executive Director. “It’s a perfect blend of island ambiance and musical energy.”

As a proud Music Friendly Community certified through the Texas Music Office, South Padre Island emphasizes the importance of live music in its culture and economy. This event not only promotes local artists but strengthens the island’s reputation as a premier destination for music and entertainment.

Event Details:

- Date: Saturday, June 21, 2025
- Time: Daylong schedule—performances begin around sunrise and continue through sunset.
- Location: Across key South Padre Island outdoor venues—streets, parks, beachside plazas, and local hotspots.

Participation is open to musicians of all backgrounds. For those interested in performing—or hosting a sidewalk, park, or beach stage—details and registration can be found at the official Make Music South Padre Island site.
