SOUTH PADRE ISLAND, Texas, November 5, 2024 – Get ready for an epic day of flavor and fun as South Padre Island announces the return of the Craft Beer and Wings Festival on Saturday, November 16, 2024, at the South Padre Island Convention Center! Back for its second year, this exciting event promises to be bigger and better than ever, offering a day filled with mouth-watering bites, cold brews, live music, and good vibes.

“This year’s festival is going to be an unforgettable experience,” said Blake Henry, Visit South Padre Island Executive Director. “We’re bringing more breweries and wing vendors and have some fantastic VIP perks. It’s the perfect opportunity to gather with friends and family, enjoy incredible food and drink, and soak in the good vibes.”

The Craft Beer and Wings Festival will feature 40+ Craft Beers from the region’s top breweries, offering a selection of new releases and fan favorites to complement the festival’s signature wing dishes. Local restaurants and food trucks will compete to serve the best wings in town. New this year, attendees will have the chance to vote for their favorite beer and wings to determine the People’s Choice Award winner. Additionally, the festival will feature live performances from local band “Enlace,” DJs, as well as Miranda Lambert Tribute and Kenny Chesney Tribute. Adding to the excitement will be various games and competitions, including everything from beer pong and corn hole to contests for wing-eating and Beer Stein Holding.
