Kite-Flying Wonder Awaits At South Padre Island's 2025 Indoor Kite Fest

SOUTH PADRE ISLAND, Texas, January 28, 2024 – Vibrant kites will come alive indoors February 3-4, 2025, as the SPI Indoor Kite Fest takes center stage at the South Padre Island Convention Center. This annual event promises two unforgettable nights of stunning performances by the best indoor kite flyers in the United States.

“The SPI Indoor Kite Fest is a truly unique experience that showcases the incredible talent of kite performers from across the country,” said Blake Henry, Visit South Padre Island Executive Director. “It’s the perfect blend of artistry, music, and community spirit, and we look forward to welcoming visitors and locals alike to this event.”

Each evening, spectators will be treated to breathtaking displays of skill and artistry as expert kites perform synchronized routines. Each night will feature a distinct theme, ensuring a unique experience for attendees. Night one will deliver ‘A Tribute to the Big Screen,’ immersing the audience in the magic of cinema as performances are set to iconic music from beloved big-screen movies. Night two will center around ‘Texas Skies & Island Vibes,’ celebrating the spirit of South Padre Island with performances choreographed to country, tropical, and South Texas-inspired music. Tickets are $15 per person for one night or $25 for both nights. Advance tickets are required due to limited seating and can be purchased at B&S Kites, 956-761-1248 and S.O.S. Services, 956-772-9700.

Don’t miss this opportunity to witness the beauty and creativity of indoor kite flying at the 2025 SPI Indoor Kite Fest. Visitors are in for a spectacular show and a weekend full of fun and kite-flying wonder.
