

The South Padre Island Convention Center is happy to provide the facility at no charge for Pickleball events.

Please be aware the City of South Padre Island, the Convention and Visitors Bureau, and all City staff are in no way responsible for any accidents or injuries associated with the occupancy of the SPI Convention Center or the participation in any and all activities associated with Pickleball including but not limited to spectators, players, organizers or officials.

Since this is a City-sponsored event, any injuries sustained while in attendance as a spectator or Pickleball player, organizer, or official, will require the EMTs and ambulance being summoned to assure the well-being of the injured party. Any expenses incurred will be the responsibility of the patient.
