South Padre Island Hosts Ride-Along with Famed “Orange County Choppers” Star Paul Teutul Sr. at Chrome in the Sand Festival

SOUTH PADRE ISLAND, Texas, October 17, 2024 – Get ready to rev your engines! South Padre Island is excited to announce a one-of-a-kind motorcycle ride-along with Paul Teutul Sr., star of the hit TV series Orange County Choppers, at this year’s Chrome in the Sand Festival. The ride-along will take place at 11 a.m. on Saturday, October 19, offering a rare and exhilarating experience for motorcycle enthusiasts and fans alike.

This year, attendees will have the chance to join Paul Teutul Sr. as he leads a group ride across the island. The ride will kick off at the Wal-Mart parking lot in Port Isabel, with participants cruising over the scenic causeway and ending at the South Padre Island Convention Center. Along the way, Paul will be at the helm, leading the charge and giving fans an unforgettable ride experience.

This event is open to the public, and the first 500 participants will receive an exclusive commemorative t-shirt. Whether you’re a motorcycle aficionado eager to ride alongside Paul or simply enjoy the spectacle from the sidelines, South Padre Island encourages the whole community to come out and show their support.

Mark your calendars, and don’t miss this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to ride with a motorcycle legend or cheer on from the sidelines! The Chrome in the Sand Festival is one of the island’s most anticipated events, bringing together the community for a weekend of fun, camaraderie, and chrome.
